

Major Silloway Believes Police Killed Gangsters

And That the Names of the Actual Slayers Would Be Known Before Night—Says Killings Were in Retaliation For Stopping of Protection Money.

Chicago, Feb. 15 (AP).—Major Fred D. Silloway, assistant prohibition administrator, today advanced the theory that police officers themselves killed the seven gangsters shot to death in a north side gang stronghold yesterday, and declared that he believed the names of the actual slayers would be known before night.

Commissioner of Police Russell has ascribed most of the gang killings to the prohibition laws.

Russell and Deputy Commissioner John Stege, in charge of the detective bureau, had left their offices to go to the inquest for the seven slain men at the time Silloway made his statement.

Captain James Gleason, Stege's assistant, however, said it was ridiculous to suppose police were involved in the murders.

"Those men were gangsters, masquerading as officers," he declared emphatically.

Major Silloway expressed the belief that the killings yesterday were the direct outgrowth of a bliffling job here six weeks ago when 500 cases of whiskey were taken from the Moran gang by a west side liquor running outfit.

Major Silloway said he did not believe the theft of the liquor by one faction from the other could have been carried out in broad daylight on a well-traveled boulevard without police assistance. The Moran gang, he said, apparently got the same idea and cut off tribute that the prohibition officer said the gang had paid the police.

Major Silloway said he believed the killings were in retaliation for stopping the protection money and declared he expected to gain information as to the actual killers during the day.

He said some of the killers wore police uniforms, that an automobile resembling a police squad car with a gong on the side was used by them and that the slayers evidently were well-known to the Moran gang, as they were admitted without question.

2nd BOTTLE BREAKS, VALET LOSES THE OTHER 81

Honolulu, Feb. 15 (AP).—William Reid, who came to Hawaii as valet to Walter P. Chrysler, American automobile magnate, was out 81 bottles of assorted liquors and $405 in cash today because the eighty-second bottle broke.

Mr. and Mrs. Chrysler and their daughter Bernice and son Walter P. Jr., arrived here on the steamer Malolo from San Francisco last Wednesday for a short vacation enroute to the Far East.

When the Chrysler luggage was removed from the boat there were certain bags that Reid refused to let porters handle. He took them off himself. An odor of liquor attracted the attention of customs officers. The bags were found to contain whiskey, gin, rum, and champagne. The odor came from a broken whisky bottle.

A fine of $5 a bottle was levied on the valet. Reid appeared at the customs office yesterday and paid $405 at that rate. He did not say to whom the liquor belonged or whether he personally met the expense of his accident.

Mr. Chrysler made no comment for publication.

Mannerchor Dance.

Owing to the fact that many friends of the Rondout Social Mannerchor could not attend the annual masquerade recently held, the organization has been requested to sponsor an encore dance. This will be done. The Mannerchor will hold it in their own hall on the Strand, Monday night, February 18. The Pincus five-piece jazz orchestra will play.

Fire Imperiled Entire Town.

Mars, Pa., Feb. 15 (AP).—Fire which swept through the business district of Mars early today destroyed three buildings and for a time imperiled the entire town. Loss was estimated at $60,000. Five companies from neighboring towns helped fight the blaze. They were hampered by frozen fire plugs and ice which sheeted their equipment.

Dividend on Common Stock.

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Directors of the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation today resumed dividends on the common stock by declaring a regular quarterly payment of 50 cents and an extra of 25 cents. No dividends have been paid on the common since May, 1924, when a payment of 50 cents was made.

Home Passes Box Bill.

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP).—Without a record vote, the House today passed the box bill to make more stringent the regulations governing the entry into the United States of persons coming as visitors to seek employment. The measure now goes to the senate.

Gas Tax Is a Fair Measure.

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP).—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt characterized the proposed gasoline tax recommended by his agricultural advisory committee as a fair tax measure in an address today before 2,500 guests of Cornell University at the Farm and Home Week Conference.

Lindbergh at Sapelo Island

Sapelo Island, Ga., Feb. 15 (AP).—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh landed here from Miami at 11:25 a. m. today to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Coffin.

It was announced that he would be taken on a pheasant hunt this afternoon and probably would spend the night at the Coffin estate. He will confer while here with Clement M. Keyes, President of the National Air Transport Corporation, and Coffin, who is Chairman of the National Air Transport.

Lindbergh said he expected to take off some time tomorrow for Washington.

He left Miami at 7:37 a. m., negotiating the 400-mile flight in less than four hours. He was unaccompanied.

Dry Agents Find Customer List

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Prohibition authorities had in their possession today a list of wealthy persons who they believe were patrons of a raided firm of bootleggers.

Raiding the premises of the Monroe Lamp and Equipment Company in Manhattan and the International Postal Supply Company in Brooklyn, the agents said they not only found the customer list but $500,000 worth of high grade liquors and documents indicating the firms supplied the bulk of the liquor for big dinners and social affairs.

Five men and one woman were arrested on charges of conspiracy and released under $7,500 bail each. Assistant United States Attorney Watts said evidence in the hands of the government proved the existence of a conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws, the tariff act and to conceal imported goods on which tariff had not been paid.

LINDBERGH SAYS FLYING IS A SAFE BUSINESS

Miami, Fla., Feb. 15 (AP).—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in commenting on excitement on his late arrival at a scheduled airport said today "If it is possible, I hope no searching parties will be out looking for me now or any other time. When I am not accounted for over a period of hours or a few days."

"Flying is a safe business," the colonel said, "and it should not be necessary to send searching parties for a flier who is simply out flying some place. Searching parties are not sent out for train passengers or automobile drivers."

Reminded that he was not an ordinary train passenger or an ordinary motorist and that his fame had made him a public character, he replied "I did not invent that system."

NAMES OF 30 ACCUSED ATTORNEYS DISCLOSED

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—The names of 30 of 74 attorneys recommended for disbarment, suspension or reprimand by Supreme Court Justice Isidor Wasservogel after the so-called ambulance chasing inquiry before him last summer were disclosed today.

The names were called on the calendar of the appellate division for filing of answers to charges against each lawyer. The evidence will then be considered by a referee, who will then recommend to the appellate division the punishment of each.

RESOURCES OF NATIONAL BANKS $30,589,165,000

Hi-Y Boys' Service.

The Hi-Y boys of the Kingston Y. M. C. A. will give their program of music and singing in the South Rondout Methodist Church on Sunday evening, February 17.

40 Injured in Sewer Gas Blasts

Boston, Feb. 15 (AP).—Terrific explosions of sewer gas in the heart of the downtown shopping district, which sent street parking, manhole covers, and shattered plate glass hurtling into the air, injured 40 persons here late yesterday. Thousands of others, who crowded the section at the time, escaped in a wild rush for subway entrances and streets leading away from the danger zone.

Four explosions followed in succession in the vicinity of Chaucer and Summer streets. Fire raged through the manholes as the covers blew off and adding to the peril of the homebound commuter crowd, then at its height. Most of those injured were cut or bruised by flying glass and blocks of paving. A few near the manholes were burned.

Police details and fire apparatus were rushed to the scene. While the former roped off the danger zone and quieted those panic-stricken firemen donned gas masks and attacked the flames roaring from the manholes. Several policemen and firemen received minor injuries in this work.

A man, standing on a manhole cover, was hurled through a plate glass window, but escaped with a shaking up.

Police attributed the explosions to a short circuit of high voltage wires in electric power conduits. Snow and ice, they said, had sealed the vents in the covers which ordinarily permitted gases to escape. Removal of other manhole covers in the vicinity last night was ordered as a precautionary measure and all danger of further explosions was believed past.

CLAIMS ONE-UP VICTORY IN FIGHT AGAINST GAMBLING.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 15 (AP).—Governor Huey P. Long of Louisiana today claimed a one-up victory in his fight against gambling in New Orleans.

The governor went into the lead in the battle Wednesday night when National Guard troops swept down upon night clubs and confiscated $11,500 at the Trachina Club, after a search of guests. The Trachina Club's proprietor, William C. Thomas, evened the score when he obtained a temporary injunction in a Baton Rouge court restraining state authorities from disposing of the seized cash.

Governor Long jumped back into the lead last night when he announced that the money already had been deposited to the credit of the state treasury. "That money belongs to the state and the gamblers will have to get the legislature to pass an act to restore the money to them. I don't think they will have much luck with the legislature," the governor said.

In defense of the raids by the troops and the search of women guests, Long warned of more rigid action next time.

"Every person under arrest is subject to search," he said. The women detained by the National Guard were searched by women and only their outer garments removed in privacy. The way to avoid this is for the ladies affected to stay out of the gambling houses.

The state's finances continue to improve. We have some $10,000 more for schools, hospitals and other state purposes."

HELD ON SUSPICION OF HAVING KILLED TAXI DRIVER.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15 (AP).—Russell Sloat, 28, of Philadelphia, was held here today on suspicion of having slain John Lowry, Scranton, Pa., taxicab driver, whose bloodstained taxicab was found wrecked in a ditch near Rummelme, N. J., on Monday.

Sloat had a loaded revolver in his possession when arrested at a restaurant here last night. Julia Fleischer, 21, waitress, was held as a material witness.

Detectives learned from Sloat's sister, Lillian, 22, a waitress in Camden, N. J., and Edmund Saunders, 25, of Mount Ephraim, N. J., that Sloat had boasted to them of having been forced to "bump a guy" in Scranton and bury his body beside a mine creek nearby. "I didn't have time to make a good job of it," Sloat was quoted as saying.

And had to stick the body in the ground with the legs sticking out," Burton Lowry, father of the missing driver, and Detective Phillips of Scranton, accompanied local police when the arrest was made. A search was first made of the place where Sloat lived and Lowry, according to police, identified a pocket flashlight found there as one which had belonged to his son.

Scranton police have begun a search for Lowry's body in the region where Sloat is said to have described burying it.

100-YEAR-OLD SPINSTER SAYS SHE DETESTS MEN

Boston, Eng., Feb. 15 (AP).—Miss Wilhelmina Robinson has reached the age of 100.

"I detest men," she avowed on reaching the century mark, "and I put down my long and happy life to the fact that I was never foolish enough to marry one."

Miss Wilhelmina wears a frilly cap and shares her rooms with two milk-white cats—both ladies.

Approves Express Consolidation

L. C. C. Gives Full Approval of Rail Road Plans to Consolidate Express Business Into Hands of the Mail Way Express Agency, Inc.

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP).—Full approval of railroad plans to consolidate the entire express business of the country in the hands of a single corporation, the Railway Express Agency, Inc., was given today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Under contracts which the commission approved, the Railway Express Agency will issue 1,000 shares of capital stock and $22,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds and will acquire all of the property of the American Railway Express Company. Profits from express service will be divided among railroads in proportion to the business which they contribute.

The nominal issue of capital will be divided among the 36 lines which are members of the association of railway executives.

The new arrangement takes effect on March 1, all property acquisitions having been made tentatively by the railroad representatives prior to submitting the issue to the commission.

In view of the early date for the establishment of the new system, the commission hurried its consideration of the project. The facts were submitted on February 6, and the program was approved February 11 by a vote of the commission with no members dissenting, for announcement today.

Practically all of the express business has been handled by the American Railway Express Company since 1920, but the contracts governing it expire March 1. The new arrangement will take effect in time to supersede the old one.

AMERICAN COMPANY CONTROLS BRITISH POWER COMPANIES

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Control of seven of the principal British power companies with assets of $150,000,000 has been acquired by the Utilities Power and Light Corporation, an American company.

Harley L. Clarke, president of the Utilities Power and Light, completed negotiations by transatlantic telephone and then announced that his company had taken over all common stock of Greater London and Counties Trust, Ltd., which controls the stock of the seven power companies and their subsidiaries.

Mr. Clarke said this is the first time an American company has taken over British public utilities serving localities in the British Isles and was "probably the most significant tie-up of American and British capital since the war."

The power companies involved in the transaction serve three large areas adjoining London without competition, and extending east, west, north and south serve exclusively 95 cities and towns in England and Scotland.

Acquisition of the British properties will give the Utilities Power and Light Corporation gross earnings of $43,000,000 and make it a $400,000,000 corporation from the standpoint of assets.

RISKS LIFE IN FUTILE ATTEMPT TO SAVE AGED MAN.

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—A frail woman hurled herself across a seven-foot gap three stories in the air in a futile attempt to save an aged man from burning to death.

Mrs. Della Rooney saw her neighbor, Charles Blitzer, 65, with his clothing afire in his apartment across the air shaft last night. Climbing out on the fire escape she leaped across the opening barely grasping the railing of the opposite fire escape.

Pulling herself up, she threw water on the victim and rolled him in blankets until the blaze was extinguished, but Blitzer died within a few minutes.

ANNUAL MEETING OF JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Downtown Jewish Community Center will be held at the building on lower Broadway Sunday at 2 p. m. Business to be transacted warrants the attention of every member so it is expected that there will be a large attendance. A report of the year's activities will be read.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gill, 12 Spring street, a son, George Girard, at Kingston Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Schoonmaker, 71 Flatbush avenue, a son, Frank Keator, at Kingston Hospital.

Grand and Trial Jurors.

A panel of grand and trial jurors to attend the Ulster county term of Supreme court, Justice Stanley presiding, which will convene at the court house in this city on Monday, March 4, at 2 p. m., will be drawn at the county clerk's office on Saturday of this week.

Two Busy Days For Hoover

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 15 (AP).—President-elect Hoover had before him today the two most strenuous days of the pre-inaugural vacation period in Florida.

They were to be devoted to an automobile tour of a large portion of the Lake Okeechobee district as the guest of Governor Doyle E. Carlton, who desired to have the next chief executive make a personal inspection with a view to obtaining Federal aid for flood control and the improvement of navigation.

Twenty automobiles were furnished for the accommodation of the entourage, which included all of the members of Mr. Hoover's party except Mrs. Hoover. She will remain at Belle Isle until tomorrow, morning then to Palm Beach to join her husband for the luncheon to be given there in their honor by James Francis Burke, general counsel of the Republican National Committee, and Mrs. Burke.

During his more than 24 hours in the Everglades Mr. Hoover will find a sparsely settled and in many places almost desolate country.

In the region he will be presented with evidence of the havoc wrought by the flooding of Lake Okeechobee in the hurricane last year, where more than 2,000 persons lost their lives. It is to prevent a repetition of this disaster that Florida is seeking Federal aid.

The program which Governor Carlton has in mind contemplates both a system of improved levees to contain the waters at flood tide and also more and better drainage canals.

Besides Mr. Hoover and Governor Carlton, and other state officers, the party includes representative Frank B. Reid of Illinois, chairman of the House Flood Control Committee; Walter F. Lineberger of Fort Lauderdale, former member of Congress from California; and Glenn B. Skipper, Republican National Committee man for Florida.

CONTINUES ATTACK ON DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS.

Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 15 (AP).—Opponents of the proposed increase in the gasoline tax today were finding comfort in the speech delivered by State Treasurer Samuel S. Lewis last night in which he said a four cent tax was "absolutely unwarranted" and that no additional money was needed by the department of highways.

Speaking at a banquet of the Camp Hill Fire Company at Camp Hill, a suburb, Lewis continued his attacks on the department and urged an amendment prohibiting it from spending money without accounting for it in regular procedure. He mentioned the North Office Building on Capitol Hill which was started with highway funds.

Sufficient funds are available to construct state highways, he said, declaring that "the department's greatest construction cares are just ended, and its resources will bring in during the next biennium about $23,000,000 more than the department received during the last two years."

Lewis saw a decrease in the number of motorists, driven from the highways because of the high cost of operation. The state, he said, would thus lose what might have been gained through their consumption of gasoline.

PRESIDENT'S WISHES ARE AGAIN DISREGARDED

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP).—President Coolidge suggested yesterday that work on the first five of the fifteen cruisers authorized in the naval construction measure begin in the next fiscal year. Within a few hours after his recommendation, a Senate sub-committee voted $700,000 for an immediate start on the five cruisers.

It was the second time that the President's wishes with regard to the cruiser bill have been disregarded. He first sought the removal of the clause requiring that work on the fifteen cruisers and one aircraft carrier begin before July 1, 1931, but both houses left the time clause in when they passed the measure, and now he has lost the first skirmish to have the inauguration of the construction program delayed until the next fiscal year.

The President recommended $12,720,000 for starting work on five of the cruisers and this was taken to mean that he considered the whole program deferred for a year, despite the retention of the time clause in the bill. His recommendation was accepted by the Senate appropriations sub-committee voted to make $700,000 of the naval supply bill immediately available. This appropriation, however, must be approved by the full committee, the senate and the House before it becomes effective.

OWES HIS LIFE TO HIS BELT BUCKLE.

Buffalo, Feb. 15 (AP).—For the second time in three weeks a Buffalo man owes his life to his belt buckle.

Last night Howard J. Hannon, 21, was saved at a gasoline station here when he failed to throw up his hands on the bandit's order. The bullet struck Hannon's belt buckle, leaving him only a slight stomach wound.

Three weeks ago a Buffalo patrolman had a similar experience in a gun battle with a negro. The patrolman returned his assailant's fire, however, shooting the negro dead.

Explosion Rocks Buenos Aires

Buenos Aires, Feb. 15 (AP).—A series of explosions, occurring when fire reached a large quantity of alcohol in a dockhouse at the waterside here, rocked Buenos Aires at 4:30 a. m. today.

There was one explosion followed by a score of minor blasts. Owing to the thick smoke and the fierceness of the blaze it was impossible to tell if there were any victims.

A strong south breeze carried the flames from the blazing structure away from four buildings which contained immense deposits of explosives and which if fired would have endangered the entire dock district.

At 6:35, nearly two hours after the fire broke out, it was apparently under control.

About the Folks

Attorney H. Lelloy Gill has returned from a several weeks' vacation which he spent in Florida, and has resumed his law practice.

Mrs. Harry T. Newman of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mrs. Charles T. Smith of Mr. Vernon, N. Y., who have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Van Steenburgh at 91 Downs street, have returned to their homes.

SETS PLAN EXTENSIVE MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.

At the regular meeting of Joyce Schrick Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held in the "Dugout" on East Chestnut street Thursday night, it was decided to conduct an extensive membership campaign, which is expected to greatly increase the membership of the post.

When the next meeting is held on Thursday, February 21, the rooms of the "Dugout" will be crowded, it is anticipated, for every member at last night's meeting resolved to bring a new member to the next session. The members who attended Thursday's meeting enjoyed a social, following the business session.

The recent successful minstrel was discussed at the meeting and the Veterans expressed great appreciation for the cooperation given them by the public. Another feature of the meeting was the planning of a social evening to be held next Monday. This will be for men only. Members are permitted to bring one friend, whether he be a veteran or not, to assist in making merry at the good time planned by Joseph Mitchell, chairman of the house committee. The major part of the evening will be spent in playing cards.

BILL TO CORRECT ABUSE OF WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Albany, Feb. 15 (AP).—To correct what it termed an "abuse" of the writ of habeas corpus procedure the state crime commission today introduced in the legislature a bill to have petitioners for writs state whether they have made previous applications. The commission, in a report submitted the legislature today, declared the "repeaters" were the greatest violators of the spirit of the law which provides for writs of habeas corpus.

The bill, introduced by Senator Caleb H. Baumes, of Orange county, chairman of the commission, would amend the civil practices act by providing that a petition for a habeas corpus writ to inquire into cause of imprisonment must state whether any previous application for a writ has been made and if so to what court or judge, whether any appeal has been taken from order and what new facts, if any, are shown on the subsequent application.

To Confer With Sargent.

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP).—The House judiciary committee appointed a sub-committee today to confer with Attorney General Sargent to learn what action he intends to take in the investigation of Federal Judge Francis A. Winslow of the southern district of New York.

Navy Bill Reported To Senate.

Washington, Feb. 15 (AP).—Carrying $12,370,000 for the first two years' program of the newly authorized cruiser construction, the Navy Department appropriation bill was reported to the Senate today by the appropriations committee.

Convicted of Conspiracy.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 15 (AP).—Mayor Marshall McCormack of Herris, Ill., his brother Elmer, a policeman, and Chief of Police John Stamm were convicted of conspiracy to violate the national prohibition act in a verdict returned today in district court.

Guy Porter Arrested.

Guy Porter, a negro of Ecopus, was arrested Thursday by Officer Welch, who charged him with operating a Ford truck without having the necessary license papers. The hearing was adjourned to Saturday in police court.

Remodeling Here.

Jack Gramer, shoe merchant of 5 E. Main, is conducting a remodeling sale at present to prepare his store for workmen, who will follow plans to make the business place one of the most modern in the downtown section.

Finch Road Light To Manufacture Products Here

Will Erect Factory Building on Albany Avenue Extension, Where It Is Expected 100 Men Will Be Given Employment By June First.

Within the next three weeks construction will be commenced on the erection of a factory building on Albany avenue extension which when completed, about June 1, will house the manufacturing plant of the Finch Road Light Corporation, manufacturers of the "Ideal Ride-Lite," a nationally advertised automobile light for attachment to the front fender of a car, and designed to illuminate the road and side of the road to increase the safety of night driving. The plant will be housed in a modern Spanish type of architecture building 54 feet by 150 feet in size with two story administration building facing the highway and the one story factory building at the rear.

When the plant is in operation about June first it is anticipated at least 100 men will be given employment. At present plans call for one unit but the construction is such that another unit may be added to double the capacity of the plant.

The building is to be erected by the N. A. Williams Co., Inc., of 75 State street, Albany, financial brokers, and although the work has progressed to such an extent that the plans and specifications have been in the hands of contractors for some time no publicity has been given the project until the present time. To the W. E. Joyce Company of this city has been awarded the general contract for the construction of the building and as far as possible the sub-contracts will be given to local contractors. Work will be commenced within three weeks.

Kingston Selected.

For some time the light has been on the market but the manufacturers have had no factory, the lights being made under contract by specialty jobbers. When the firm decided to erect its own factory and commence manufacturing several towns were considered but Kingston was finally selected as the site for the first unit. A 10 acre tract of land on the A. H. Chambers property on Albany avenue extension was secured. The plant will be located just west of the Albany avenue railroad crossing on the north side of the highway and there will be rail shipping facilities.

In addition to facilities for manufacturing 5,000 lights a week the company will also produce other automobile accessories and specialties. The firm was first attracted to Kingston through information which was secured through the Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Schuyler C. Schultz and Mr. Chambers took up the matter and through their efforts a suitable location was finally secured. Mr. Williams who is at present at the Hotel Stuyvesant states that the chief reason for locating his plant in Kingston was the fact that there apparently are ideal conditions in this city for securing employees. His survey of the city showed a great many factories and plants where female help was employed and since his company employs male help he concluded that help such as will be needed by

LEE BIRTHPLACE WILL BE SHINE

Daughters of Confederacy
Pay $250,000 for Old
Virginia Estate.

Richmond, Va.—The birthplace of Gen. Robert E. Lee, Stratford Hall, in Westmoreland County, Virginia, has been bought by the William Alexander chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy in Connecticut. It was announced here.

The plantation of 1,222 acres, where Lee spent his boyhood years, was sold for $250,000 and will be made a national memorial.

Stratford Hall is about eight miles from Richmond and about 100 miles down from the Potomac river and Washington.

Purchase of the Lee estate marks the first step in the plan sponsored by the William Alexander chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy to make the place "not merely a shrine, but a living national educational memorial and a center of historical research."

Miss Zibel Ames, of the William Alexander chapter, said.

Sold on Birthday.

Announcement of the sale, on the anniversary of General Lee's birth, and the two hundredth anniversary of the building of historic Stratford hall, marks the fulfillment of a determination born of a dramatic story starting in Greenwell, Conn., nearly a year ago.

Mrs. Charles D. Lanier, of Greenwell, head of the William Alexander chapter, while going through an old broken desk of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sidney Lanier, widow of the poet, came upon a penciled manuscript by Lanier, unpublished and until then not known to exist, which turned out to be a speech he made before citizens of Macon, Ga., in 1870 upon the death of General Lee in which he urged the establishment of a memorial to honor Lee, to which every person who loved the southern leader could contribute.

The following day Mrs. Lanier received a letter from a friend visiting in Virginia describing a trip to Stratford Hall and asking why it could not be preserved.

The same day Mrs. Lanier called a meeting of her chapter which resulted in the passage of resolutions looking to the purchase of the tract. The deed of purchase was signed at Stratford Hall by the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Stuart, after seven months' negotiations.

Miss Ames set forth the purposes of the Robert E. Lee Memorial foundation, now being formed to operate similarly to the Mount Vernon association, as being fourfold: To purchase, restore and furnish the home; to restore the famous old library; make of it a center of research and to establish scholarships; to restore the colonial gardens, the Stratford wharves, the Potomac and reproduce some of the boats, which two centuries ago were tied there; and to perpetuate the ideals and character of the Lee, chiefly by historical studies.

In Good Repair.

The house is in a good state of preservation, Miss Ames said. Insurance agencies have said after inspection that as it stands it might be insured for $100,000. The purchase price is $250,000 for the entire estate, to be paid $50,000 within three months and the balance within three years.

The foundation is planning a national campaign for $500,000 to allow $100,000 for restoration and additional funds for building a guest house.

Edward A. Donn, Jr., who has specialized in colonial architecture, has been employed by the Connecticut United Daughters of the Confederacy to supervise the restoration.

Stratford was the gift of Queen Caroline, wife of King George II, to members of the Lee family. It was the home of Richard Henry and Francis Lightfoot Lee, signers of the Declaration of Independence; of "Light Horse Harry" Lee and other generations of the family. Prior to the Revolutionary war it was a gathering place for Virginia leaders and the origin of much of the sentiment for independence.

$1 an Hour for Farmwife

Readrick, Okla.—A net profit of more than a dollar for every hour she devoted to caring for a flock of 400 laying hens was earned by Mrs. Maude Bailey, farmer's wife.

Kills Coyote With Hammer

Dodge City, Kan.—A coyote chase at 30 miles an hour ended as Jack Bailey threw a hammer from the front seat and killed the animal.

Baby Picks Name

Out of Dad's Hat

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Gene Tommy Ochs, only several days old, has named himself. When Mr. and Mrs. Fanny Ochs of Brantwood, a suburb, sought a name for their offspring, they ran in to so many suggestions that they decided to put it up to the baby himself.

Selecting a score of names of present-day celebrities, they wrote the names on paper slips and put them in a hat. The baby's chubby fist went into the slipper and emerged with the name—Gene Tommy.

For Prompt and Courteous Service

HIGH FALLS
 High Falls, Feb. 14.—William A. Heydorn of New Brunswick Summary occupied the pulpit in the Reformed Church on Sunday morning and preached an excellent sermon from the word "Come." Mr. Heydorn was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Krom.

On Sunday, February 17, preaching service will be omitted. February 24, the usual service will be held. All welcome to join the Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

The Ladies' Aid was entertained on Friday last at Mrs. LeRoy

Krom's. A goodly number was present and completing blocks for a quilt was the work for the afternoon. A supper was planned for March 7, the anniversary of the society. Daily refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and a fine social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. Daniel Williams and children visited relatives in Grand Gorge last week, returning home on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Stevens has been having some interior work done in her home. Henry Dymal did the work.

Levin Sherman was home for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Smith of Kortoukton visited relatives in this place on Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Snyder spent Monday with Miss Jessie Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Snyder of Poughkeepsie were in this place one day last week. Linda Herbert, Jr., spent the day with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Snyder.

Mrs. Franklin Parker and children of Grand Gorge are spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Daniel Williams.

ST. RARY
 St. Rary, Feb. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn gave a Valentine party to a number of friends on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Elsworth was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Rose at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Plackert entertained a party of friends on Valentine's Day.

Mrs. Mary Miller and little Isabel Krom went to New York city on Monday.

P. T. A. MEETING HELD AT LAKE KATRINE

Lake Katrine, Feb. 15.—The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Monday evening with all officers present. The program in honor of Founder's Day was given as outlined in Saturday's Freeman and was well received, especially the candle lighting ceremony which was very beautiful. Mrs. D. Parrish and Mrs. H. Ferguson and Camp Five girls were given a riding vote of thanks and a vote also was given Mr. and Mrs. Lachman for the huge cake very elaborately decorated, which was part of this ceremony.

The offering for the National Extension fund was $2.53. Mrs. Winant presented $1.03 towards the book and $5 from the home economics committee of last year which was not previously acknowledged.

Chairs for the primary department have been purchased which cost $5. The president announced that two members are presenting to the pupils of Mrs. Enslin's room and the one in Mrs. Lorde's department, making the best average in their studies this term, a prize of $5 in gold.

PERSHING AND GILBERT ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Paris, Feb. 15 (AP).—Two prominent Americans were definitely on the road to recovery today after influenza attacks.

General John J. Pershing was able to get around his room in a dressing gown. So far, however, he is receiving no visitors.

S. Parker Gilbert, agent general for reparations, is keeping indoors merely as a precautionary measure and has seen some friends. He plans to leave for Berlin Monday or Tuesday.

Telephone Calls in 1928

An average of 35,000 local telephone calls were made daily by Kingston telephone subscribers during the year 1928, according to a report by the manager of the New York Telephone Company. There was also daily average of 1,420 long distance calls originating here. This is an increase of more than 12 per cent in the daily average of toll calls over 1927.

Pretty Scottish Cousins

In the song "Comin' Through the Rye" reference is to the fording of the River Rye. Custom established in times of yore was to be exacted from ladies who were met in crossing the stream on the stepping stones.

"PATRIOT" AND "PACIFIST".

The story goes that during the debate on the cruiser bill Senator Reed of Missouri "exposed" Senator Brookhart of Iowa as a "pacifist" and that the latter, even while the finger of scorn was pointed at him, had the spirit to admit it and decline to be ashamed. The incident is the more interesting—one might even say illuminating—in view of the personal records of the two men. It appears that Senator Reed has never shown any inclination toward military pursuits, has never joined the militia, never enlisted for war although he was young enough in 1898; and has done battle only with his tongue. Senator Brookhart, on the other hand, although a confessed "pacifist," can point to a distinguished military record.

He has long been a famed rifle shot, and has been in the National Guard since 1894, achieving the military rank of colonel. He served in the Spanish-American war and in the Mexican border disturbances. During the World War he acted as special instructor of marksmanship for three American divisions, as chief instructor in small arms at Camp Perry and as director of marksmanship at Camp Benning. Moreover, he answered Senator Reed's taunt by announcing that in case of war he would immediately resign from the Senate and enlist.

And yet he is a "pacifist" unashamed—which means merely that, knowing from experience what war is, he favors every possible effort to prevent it consistent with honor and right. This highly interesting story of a "pacifist" and of a "patriot" is a further reminder that the free-earners who help to bring on war are more often found in the arm-chair brigade than in the ranks of experienced soldiers.

LITERARY LOG-ROLLING.

Referring editorially to present-day literary log-rolling, the New York Times says: "Young writers and critics continue to discover each other, but they are doing it much more subtly, as they think, with great refinements on the old method. Instead of blurring it out they hint it in a round-about fashion. They wink at each other knowingly. More and more the whole process is falling into the hands of a little clique of intellectuals, with their own passwords, nicknames, nods and becks and wreathed smiles." The Times suggests that if a second or third-rate writer who is planning to become known as one of "the greatest geniuses going" were more sincere when returning due compliments, instead of describing another to whom he is indebted as "one of the most accomplished essayists of our time," he would boldly write: "I mean Gifted Hopkins, who praised to the skies my volume of poetry; and now I am paying him back in full, and hope never to have to read a line of his again."

If this is the way in which modern literary reputations are made, they are not likely to last many moons. Although the publishers' advertisements are conspicuously full of extravagant compliments signed by unknown or little known names, we may rest assured that some literary reputations are still due to real merit. Undoubtedly there are others of artificial manufacture, as the Times intimates, but these latter, if not quite "brief as the lightning" or "swift (in passing) as a shadow," are likely to face the doom of an impermanent fame to that of a fleeting summer cloud.

BROADWAY ON MAIN STREET.

Some of the big musical shows in New York are being reproduced by the newest movie process for general distribution. Inevitably, says a dramatic writer, the "Follies" and all the popular revues will be "showed on ice through the slaughterhouse and safely dispatched through the countryside." This will not produce such a revolution as has been predicted already by the silent film, but it will add immensity to the scope of popular entertainment. Merely to see shows of this class in the metropolis or a few other big cities. Now the authentic productions, with the best players, will be available for every town and village in America able to support a good movie theatre.

It may not add greatly to American culture. It will, however, add to American contentment, save travel money and help keep the boys and girls away from the big city. And obviously what can be done with flashy girl-shows can be done also with fine drama and opera.

Atlantic City has a police dog that "bites every one wearing furs." This will be unwelcome news to the multitude of women who plan to display their fur coats on the great promenade there around Easter time. But of course a dog that doesn't know the difference between a lady in furs and its four-footed enemies of the wilds will have to go.

The charge that Oklahoma legislators when not impeaching Governors are engaged in passing freak laws is in a measure confirmed by the news that the legislature of that State has just enacted a law to "alliance whisperers"—which will be just about as effective as a law forbidding gossip to wag their tongues.

The Ohio State Journal takes pride in the showing of its commonwealth, as compared with that of neighboring Indiana, on the ground that "we seldom have more than one prominent State official on trial for criminal conspiracy at a time."

THAT BODY OF YOURS

FOOD CAUSES ECZEMA.

One of the mean skin ailments of which I have written before is eczema.

You may remember that it usually begins with a redness, then little raised points, which become watery and later excrete a sort of light pus; this is followed by scales, scabs, and sometimes by fissures or open cuts in the skin. There is nearly always itching which is one of the ways it is diagnosed.

Just what causes eczema is still unknown, but that there is a hereditary tendency, and that the manner in which the body handles or fails to handle certain foods is a factor, is now agreed.

The foods to avoid are said to be pork, preserved meats, veal, goose, liver, fresh bread, hot bread, hot cakes, fried foods, acid fruits, potatoes, butter, cream, sugar, milk, candy, very hot or very cold drinks. Safe foods are meat and vegetable soups, fresh fish, boiled or poached eggs, any cereal breakfast foods except oatmeal, stale bread, spinach, lettuce, asparagus, beans and peas, figs, prunes, oranges, stewed fruits, water, with limited amounts of tea, coffee, milk, cocoa, buttermilk.

However Dr. B. Usher, Montreal, has been comparing the blood sugar in normal individuals with those having eczema. In those with eczema there was a large per cent who showed more delay in assimilating the starch or sugar than in those free from eczema.

From his experiments Dr. Usher feels that in itself dextrose or sugar formed by starch food does not cause eczema. However it has been shown recently by investigators that human sweat or perspiration makes an excellent culture medium or food for organisms.

Now these organisms are present on the skin all the time and seem to be harmless, but it is believed that in persons whose cells or tissues do not handle or take care of starch foods properly, that these organisms seem to become more active and irritate the skin.

And it has been shown that these organisms vary in number and activity with the amount of sugar in the sweat.

The only thought here is that food is still the big factor in causing eczema and the afflicted individual must work out his own salvation by avoiding the articles of food which aggravate the condition in his particular case.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

HE NEVER told a single lie.

George Washington. And that is why they made him President, they did. And yet my Pa says my kid can be a President some day. But not a kid from our way. A President could ever be—Not even me.

You ought to always tell the truth, Pa says, especially in youth, and that is what I try to do. And yet they blame so much on you, and ask about the pantry shelf. So what's the use to blame yourself for who would own right up right then?

Not even me. He must have been a funny one. A funny man, George Washington. I've thought about the man I know. To find the man my father meant. The kind that could be President. And not a one I ever saw—Not even Pa. (© 1929, Douglas Malloch.)

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

YOUR INCENTIVE

FOUR things, one or more of them, furnish the incentive for 90 per cent of men's endeavor—fame, wealth, position, power.

One thing furnishes the incentive for almost all women—love.

Aspiration to realize one or more of the quartet of achievements begins early in everybody's life.

The desire to win the most valuable marble is only a demonstration of the desire to attain wealth as it is represented by "dramas" or "agates." What marbles are to the boy, dollars or bonds or wide fields or some other evidence of wealth will be to the man.

The position the bully would possess as the "boss" of the school or of his associates is only the youth index of what the man would achieve whose greatest desire is for power.

The youthful bully may be a good natured boy and the man may be an "easy boss." They are one and the same thing except in years and maturity.

Men will be dishonest to gain wealth. They will risk the penalties of the law to gain fame. They will sacrifice to the limit to gain power. But they will do all three and more to gain position.

And what they would give most for is the most dimmy and treacherous possession of all.

A man honest in everything else will adopt the tactics of the dark lantern and the Jimmy to gain political preferment and attain official position.

The social climber will bear almost any insult and practice almost any servility if by either or both one step may be gained to win that social recognition which is his overwhelming desire.

The groundwork of all these aspirations and the endeavor to make them into realities is ambition.

Without ambition we would go through life like snails, creeping and crawling towards a dismal end.

With a selfish ambition we would ride rough shod and heartlessly over every person and thing which blocked or threatened to block our path.

Neither career contributes to happiness here or hereafter; neither makes us better, in ourselves, nor helps us to contribute to the betterment of the world in general.

It is unselfish ambition, the desire to have wealth for the good we may do with it; position for the opportunity it gives to influence our fellow beings to be bigger and better; fame for the means it gives for the wider spreading of the real truths of life; power for the measure of good that it makes possible; by these does ambition change from a vice to a virtue and cease to be the sin by which Shakespeare tells us the angels fell.

There is but little space, too little to give it its just deserts, to say a word of that chiefest of women's incentives, love.

Love is the only power on earth which can create something out of nothing. Can make what only seems to be a living reality, can give vice until it passes for virtue and makes a heaven out of what would otherwise be a hell.

Every mother in the world does all these things. The love of a mother knows only one great love and that the love which the Bible tells of God Himself.

In the cottages and in the palace love finds an equal place. If there be there a woman to truly express it, it knows no boundary of application, no restraints of expression. Use does not diminish or time exhaust it.

It is greater than fame, more more beautiful than power and more permanent than position. It is the one attribute of God that establishes our likeness to our Creator.

WALKER VALLEY.

Walker Valley, Feb. 14.—The sad news which reached this place on Friday, February 1, of the sudden death of Mrs. Anna Schroder at her home in Pine Bush saddened many.

She was born in Jersey City, December 24, 1855, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Eitel. Most of her life was spent in Walker Valley. After selling her farm she moved to Pine Bush a few years ago, where she built herself a fine home. She was a good mother and neighbor. She was a widow for several years.

Those left to mourn her loss are two sons, George of Ellenville and William of Poughkeepsie; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Linderorth of Brooklyn and Etta Taylor of Newburgh, also a sister, Mrs. E. E. Morrow of Walker Valley; six grandchildren. One brother, George Eitel and a sister, Mrs. Bertha Smith preceded her in death. She was a member of Pine Bush M. C. Church, the pastor, the Rev. M. C. Adams, officiating at the funeral interment in family plot at New Prospect cemetery.

On Saturday afternoon little Dorothy Rose entertained several of her little friends as well as some older ones, including folks from Brooklyn in honor of her seventh birthday. Prizes were awarded for pinning the tail on the donkey.

May Polhamus is ill. Mrs. Frances Marshall is confined to her bed with tonsillitis. Eli Laforge has recovered so far as to be out again and has his men busy cutting wood and grape posts, which he is offering for sale.

On Saturday evening Gurston Green entertained a few friends in honor of his birthday. The Ladies Aid had a delightful time on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Mecke. There were 12 present. After the business hour embroidery and work for the coming fair was taken up. The radio music was much enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Before leaving a favorite of Mrs. Mecke was sung, "Un-speakably Precious is He" and "God be With You Till We Meet Again."

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rose entertained over the week-end friends from Brooklyn. S. Burgesen of Valley Stream, L. I. spent Sunday at his summer home here, Twin Oaks.

Mrs. Henry Evans has received word that her son, James Cox, of Walden is gaining after an attack of pleurisy.

All are glad to note Mr. and Mrs. George U. Evans and Arthur Greer are recovering their health.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Little of Peekskill spent the week-end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eckert.

Anson Polhamus has been ailing the ice house of James Harrison this week.

D. C. Jansen spent a few days with his brother, C. O. Jansen, of West Pine Bush.

Kenneth Marshall, who was taken to the Benedictine Hospital, Kingston, is expected home this week. His mother, Mrs. Marshall, spent several days with her sister, Mrs. H. Cross, so as to be near him.

HURLEY. The supper given in the basement of the church Tuesday evening was well attended. The net proceeds amounted to $82. A special offering will be taken at the Sunday morning service for the benefit of the sufferers from famine in China.

The Missionary Society will hold an all day quilting Wednesday, February 20, at the home of Mrs. John Woolsey. All the ladies are invited. Mrs. Jennie Cornish of Tonsore is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Ten Eyck, who are spending the winter in Kingston, attended the C. E. prayer meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. Charles Hornbeck and daughter, Hazel, whose home was destroyed about a week ago by fire, went Saturday to visit her brother on Long Island.

Mrs. Decker and granddaughter of Roscoe are stopping at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bush are expecting to leave Friday on the Bert Chambers farm on Albany avenue.

There will be a special candle-light service Sunday evening at the C. E. meeting for the reception of the juniors.

THE NEW NASH "400"

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

THE ONLY CAR of all the new cars with every new 1929 refinement

YOU will find some of these important new 1929 features on several of the new cars—but the only new car that has all of them is the new Nash "400".

Each one of these new refinements gives added pleasure to driving a car. And all of them together mean more delightful, carefree, luxurious motoring than you have ever known before.

And when you buy a Nash "400", you get all these advantages without a penny of extra cost. Every necessary accessory... hydraulic shock absorbers... bumpers front and rear... even tire locks... are installed at the factory—included in the factory price.

Drive a new Nash "400" today. Compare what we say about the car with what the car says to you. You will find that although we make strong statements about the "400"—the facts are even stronger!

KANTROWITZ COLUMN

(OPENING WORD—My folks—I want to say something before I go trying to sell you something... sort of a little apology as to to speak... I've had lots of requests to continue my Happy Days Sale but naturally owing to the great reductions and the advertised closing date, I had to close it last Saturday... We sure had lots of fun and happy savings—didn't we... will I won't detain you any longer...)

Well, Well, I want to speak about the OVERCOATS

A splendid selection... yes, direct... and—listen (between you and me... I've got some quiet reductions on these now...)

THAT REMINDS ME

Now folks—if you'll just wait a few minutes and tune in on the radio at station D-A-V-E-S, we'll finish this ad.

Rip Roar Rackety Back Crackle, Ooooooooooooo—boom—bang! Hello, Folks! This is station D-A-V-E-S broadcasting from the store at 46-48 No. Front Street, Kingston, New York.

I want to state that never before have we had such a splendid arrangement of talent in New Spring Footwear for the Ladies. Beautiful new styles in Snake and Reptile trimmed leathers at

$4 to $7.50 per pair

Folks—remember some time ago—I had an old gentleman who wrote me those letters... His name was Uncle Hiram... That's right... Now just a minute because he's right here and is going to say a few words to you.

Hello, there, everybody... I just thought I'd let ye all know that I'm again to be with ye all again—very shortly—and my good friend Dave is goin' to get an awful good lot of complements, and, be darned if I won't tell him a few things—yes, sir—and I want to say, right here now—he sold me a pair of his good overalls and what I didn't do to those was a crime and I give him two dollars and fifty cents for 'em and after I got through wearin' 'em—Miran-da, my wife—took 'em and covered the dog house with 'em—Well, that's all tonight folks as it's about time as I got everything locked up for the night.

Well, folks—you just heard Hiram tell you all about it and I just want to say one more thing... All Tabular Shoe Skates of the Eight fifty values for men and women in the Reach, Wright & Ditson, Planert, and Nestor Johnson brands are now only five dollars and forty-nine cents...

QUACK SURGEON FAKES INJURIES

Trims Paris Insurance Companies by Use of Professional Patients.

Paris—An ambulance chasing scandal resembling that of New York and Brooklyn, but with a characteristically Parisian touch, is calving this city.

A ring of doctors, not of lawyers, did the chasing. And their leader, Dr. Gaston Prieur, made enough money out of it to own three private hospitals, a racing stable, and a Montmartre cabaret, in which he employed the famous black dancing star, Josephine Baker, as the principal attraction.

In Doctor Prieur's hospital many of the wounds treated are alleged to have been pure fakes, wounds made of wax and rouge, which, though painful, were quite terrifying enough in appearance to frighten insurance adjusters into making fat settlements. These the doctor divided with his patients.

He had several professional patients who made a living by being permanently bedridden, under different names, in each of his hospitals in turn, while the doctor billed insurance companies for medical expenses and compensation.

"Chasers" Employed.
In the case of real wounds it was the practice of the physician and his nurses to retard healing by irritating the injuries. To let the patients get well too quickly would place them beyond the possibility of collecting insurance money.

With several other shady physicians Prieur had a corps of street men—"chasers"—in the full sense of the word—who carried blank diagnosis slips signed in advance by Prieur. Several hundred such signed blanks were found when his office was searched.

Business was so flourishing that Doctor Prieur gave less and less of his own time to it, leaving most of the work to subordinates. His "nurses" looked very surly in their white uniforms, but had no certificates of training.

The doctor himself led a life of ease and luxury, following the fortunes of the racing stable that he had bought out of his profits, and passing his evenings in the cabarets of Montmartre and Moulin Rouge.

Josephine Baker took his fancy when she appeared as star at the Folies-Bergere. In spite of lavish gifts and very ardent courting, however, his interest was not reciprocated—at least not at the beginning.

Set Up Cabaret for Josephine.
Prieur learned that the dusky Josephine wanted a cabaret all her own. Working his sufferers of fake injuries double time produced the money. He bought out at other cabaret manager, redecorated the place, named it Chez Josephine and offered the Harlem Salome a fat salary to serve as hostess.

For a year it was the rage among visiting Americans, as well as among a fraction of French night club habitués. Then Josephine left for a tour of central Europe with Doctor Prieur's suit no further advanced. It is said, then at the beginning. Since then he has haunted the cabarets of others, giving expensive parties and cutting a wide swathe in the night life of the capital.

One day an insurance adjuster visiting one of the three Prieur hospitals recognized a "patient" whom he had seen a few days previously in another of the hospitals. He reported his suspicions and the machinery of investigation was started.

Vain About Beard.
Prieur took to living every night in a different hotel to avoid capture. Investigators found his hospital a rich field. The "nurses" and some of the fake patients took fright and confessed the whole story.

If Prieur had not been so vain about his handsome black beard he might have escaped arrest indefinitely. But he could not bring himself to shave it off; and though he took a new name and went to a different hotel every night, the black beard made it easy to trace him.

A queer hint in French law makes it illegal to arrest a man at his domicile unless he is seen actually in the act of a crime. The police located Prieur even after sunset. But he had gone to bed early and was consequently immune until daylight the next morning.

A pair of inspectors took their station outside his door and allowed him to have a good night's sleep. Promptly at seven, which is legal sunrise, they knocked on his door and called him out.

Fifteen other physicians were in his organization, besides a number of "chasers" who kept them informed of accidents. In some cases they created them out of thin air.

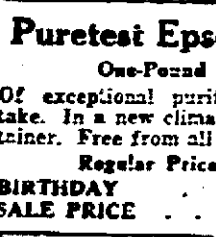

Watch Out for Snakes.
Lincoln, Neb.—Railroads must be careful about snakes in their roundhouses. Allowing a verdict of $28,000 for a workman bitten in an engine pit, the state Supreme court overruled the railroad's contention that snake bite was a common risk of mankind.

Wagon Push Closes.
Harrisburg, Pa.—State Ophthalmologist George M. Surran will pay $1 each for fish crows. He wishes to study the bird's habits and offers the bounty from his own pocket.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

QUEEN VICTORIA'S IDEAS

IN THE history of the race which speak our language, three women gave their names to the period in which they lived.

The first of these was Queen Elizabeth, of whom it could be said that all her virtues were masculine; the second was Queen Anne, whose virtues were feminine, and the third was Queen Victoria, whose virtues were "Victorian."

Partly owing to the crowded events of the last few years the "Victorian period" seems to be a very long distance away.

The idea of strangeness is also strengthened by the changes which have been brought about in the organization of society owing to the new place that women hold here and abroad.

Lyttton Strachey, a young woman expert on the subject, brought out a sensational book entitled "Queen Victoria," which revived interest in the lady who was the leading member of her sex in her time.

Women who are voting at elections, who are sitting in congress and parliament, who are on the bench, and who are members of the professions will be struck by a curious paradox.

This strong-minded woman, who was feared by statesmen and whose ideas on many subjects affected people over a large part of the world, while she thought it was all right for her to be at the head of an empire, had no sympathy with the emancipation of her sisters.

In 1870 she picked up a newspaper one day and found an account of a meeting in favor of woman suffrage. She sat down and wrote a letter to Theodore Martin in which she said:

"The queen is most anxious to enlist everybody who can speak or write to join in checking this mad, wicked folly of 'woman's rights,' with all its attendant horrors, on which her poor feeble sex is bent, forgetting every sense of womanly feeling and propriety."

"Lady — ought to get a good whipping."

"It is a subject which makes the queen so furious that she cannot contain herself."

"God created men and women different—then let them remain each in their own position."

"Tennyson has some beautiful lines on the difference of men and women in 'The Princess.'"

"Woman would become the most hateful, heartless and disgusting of human beings were she allowed to surpass herself; and where would be the protection which man was intended to give the weaker sex?"

"The queen is sure that Mrs. Martin agrees with her."

Yet it was a woman, Florence Nightingale, who had started hospital reform and the Red Cross.

What would Queen Victoria have said if she could have foreseen the part that women would take in the great war and the place she has gained in consequence?

No splendor or service can compensate for inferior or badly cooked food.

The Holy Supper is kept indeed in whatsoever we share with another's need.

—Lowell.

VARIOUS DISHES

WHEN preparing mush for mush and milk make plenty and pour into a buttered bread pan to mold. Cut into slices and fry in butter or bacon fat and serve with bacon for a breakfast dish.

Prune Whip Parfait.

Take one and one-half cupsful of stoned and washed prunes, add raisins—one-half cupful seeded and simmered in water or fruit juice until soft; add a pinch of salt, eight marshmallows, cut into quarters, and one-half cupful of cream. Set over hot water and steam and beat until the mixture is smooth, that is, the marshmallows are cream, then add the fruit and beat. Set on ice to chill, serve in sherbet cups sprinkled with pecan meats and topped with cream.

Bird's Nest Pudding.

Half fill a deep pie plate with sliced apples, peaches, or apricots and cover with a thin batter, using sour milk, one egg, one-fourth teaspoonful of soda and flour to make a thin batter. Bake until the crust is brown and the apples well cooked. Turn over on a platter, butter generously and sprinkle with sugar and nutmeg or cinnamon.

Cheese Omelet.

Take a cupful of grated cheese, one cupful of cream, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter and an egg beaten light; season with salt and pepper and put into a buttered baking dish and bake. Serve as a luncheon dish.

Tomato Ice.

Cook a quart of tomatoes seasoned with sugar, salt, paprika and nutmeg with a little grated lemon peel. Strain through a sieve and freeze. Use an ice cream dipper to serve it, adding a cone of the tomato to a nest of lettuce. Cover with mayonnaise and serve with toasted crackers.

A delicious potato soup may be prepared using chicken, veal, or any good stock in place of the milk. Prepare as usual and add a half cupful of cream just before serving, or whipped cream may be used to top each bowl of soup; sprinkle with minced chives.

Meteorologists in Copenhagen predicted a storm from the westward would drive ice through the Cattegat and sound into the Baltic and further complicate conditions there where a large number of ships are frozen in the ice.

Prof. Bruce Bennett was given a cordial reception at his second lecture on "Modern Poetry," given at the Y. W. on Thursday afternoon, after an enforced absence last week. In his talk this week, Prof. Bennett dwelt especially upon the sustained rhythm in modern poetry; and its enjoyable ripple. In fact he found much of the same rhythm in modern prose. Always the high spots in Prof. Bennett's lectures are the poems that he reads, and in the reading teaches his hearers how to read poetry—and he makes that to be read aloud as rhythm and not as prose. So he read on Thursday "The Road," "The Sea," "The Dog," "Babe," "Little Lesson," "Targoe," "Evening," Richard Gallean's "The Wife from Fairyland;" Joseph Preston Peabody's "The House and the Road;" and "Love Came Back at Fall of Dew;" and Lindsey's "General William Booth Enters into Heaven." Next Thursday afternoon Prof. Bennett will give the last of his series of six lectures on Modern Drama and Poetry at the Y. W. C. A. at 3 o'clock.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—A Simple Remedy for a Wide Spread Evil!

Many a man has suddenly realized that he was losing out—all because he neglected constipation so long. This evil scourge starts with such little things. A headache. A nervous morning. A cloudy complexion.

But all the while it saps strength, kills initiative, steals ambition. And if allowed to continue to poison the system, it may bring on serious disease. Women know it as the deadly enemy of youth and beauty. Men, as ability's cruellest foe.

Don't let it ever prey on you. Guard against it. You can—with a delicious cereal. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to prevent constipation—to promptly relieve it. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily—chronic cases, with every meal.

ALL-BRAN is 100% bran. Doctors recommend it. Serve with milk or cream. Use in cooking—muffins, breads, etc. Delicious recipes on package. Grocers sell it. Restaurants, hotels, dining cars serve it. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

Some one, with a little chuckle, looked Dame Fashion recently at a clipping which showed the portrait of a woman with a face-simile of a year's ticket, non-transferable, to the Wednesday night prayer meetings of his church, of which he had sold a large number of a dollar apiece and found the attendance at the meetings was troubled.

The only part of the story that affects a fashion article is the reason he gives: "I've always observed people value things more if they pay money for them."

Dame Fashion meditated on this the other day, as she was seeing whole shopful of exquisite dresses, and thought how devoutly thankful we all ought to be that our clothes do not grow on trees, to be had for the picking, like Mother Eve's, but demand time and expenditure of money.

And yet she does most solemnly declare that the amount of enjoyment is not gauged by the amount of money spent. It does not seem to her that the ownership of a painting valued at a half million or so could give her greater pleasure than she gets from her painting of much the same size, but which came to her as an extreme bargain in purchase money.

Lately a young bride wore with brilliant effect a diamond necklace, an heirloom in her mother's family. But let us not despair. If we long for exquisite trinkets around our necks, but straightway go shopping, with a delightfully few dollars in our hands, for a necklace of Chanel crystals. Their gleaming would almost fool a Kimberley diamond miner.

Suppose you have a gown to adorn of light tan or beige—then the same little board of dollars will fit you all out with a set of "tortoiselle" costume jewels—sort of a glorification of the tortoise shell that exquisite 1-dies of by-gone days were in their back hair in the shape of intricate and flaring combs.

If your suit calls for a blue adornment, there are sets of lapis lazuli that make an admirable color touch. Dame Fashion saw a choice one recently with a little carved blue Buddha, held to the neckline by an intricate crossing of little silver chains. But, if you are young and delightfully fair, and have one of the delicate knit suits now so fashionable, all creamy white or a most tender green, or softly flushed with pink, do hurry away with these same few lucky dollars and bring home an entrancing necklace of rose quartz beads.

Once in a while Dame Fashion likes to put in a small fashion hint for men. She had been observing that she had seen more "spats" worn by men than for a long, long time, if ever. So it was a pleasure to her to be told by a leading authority in men's wear that "spats are on the increase." As a reason, he declared that by dressing up a man's feet they have a salutary effect on his whole wardrobe. Either gray or tan may be chosen, according to the general color scheme a man follows, but black shoes are preferred, to wear with them.

And now going back to the girls—Dame Fashion wishes she could give to each one of them one of the sports and street hats with which she has lately fallen much in love. It sounds a queer mixture, to compound vicia straw and angora wool, but the result is fascinating.

Draped Beret Typical of This Winter's Style

The beret is the chic type of small hat that is comfortable with this season's large fur collars. Typical of this winter's style are the shape, asymmetrical in silhouette, and the clever draping which is an important detail of so many hats, as shown in the model illustrated.—Women's Home Companion.

Long Skirts
Long, full skirts with yoke at waistline and decided dip in the back are the almost universal style for evening wear. They are seen in all materials, velvet, tulle, tulle, etc.

ABEL'S DOCKWREST

Paris—One thing about Bee's black crepe satin afternoon dress with jabot lined with white is that it gives a chance to wear the white kid pull-on gloves that are absolutely "dinner cri." The dress is cleverly worked in ascending steps with a buckled belt fastened at a nearly normal waistline.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

The Afternoon Costume Assumes Tremendous Importance.

New York—As was to be expected afternoon dresses became the pivot around which the Paris opening revolved. Sports clothes were far from ignored but their importance was distinctly minimized. This is not only true of the French showings, but is practiced at our own, as well as foreign resorts where the comfortable habit of donning sports clothes in the morning to remove them only when time to dress for dinner has given way to an urge to dress for tea if not before. One rarely sees sports clothes in any but their legitimate place these days.

Afternoon types are taken very seriously by the haute couture which, with its international influence implies that the rank and file of women will revert to the old practice of "dressing up." To this end there are ensembles on charm.

ing lines, many of which include wraps which are a happy blend of coat and cape. While some of these are fashioned of wool, a larger proportion are in crepes and bengalines. Black and white has reappeared as its invariable spring custom, but blue remains the most important contribution to day clothes, in fact, important from every standpoint. While yellow stands forth as the newest evening shade, taking the Riviera and Palm Beach as criterion, there are indications that lavender will rouse more than a flicker of interest since shades bordering on it are being chosen by many women of style discrimination.

The reported falling off in prestige of brilliant tones in favor of pastels may again be mentioned as one of the outstanding differences in this and last season.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Practical and Popular Garment for Young Children.

6384. Percale was selected in this instance, with line for facings on pocket, collar, sleeves, belt and leg bands. Pongee or linen with piping in a contrasting color is also suggested. A yoke with tab extensions tops the front above gathered fullness. Pleasing pockets and a neat collar together with a short sleeve, faced to match collar and pocket, add to the attraction of this little model. The leg portions are gathered to comfortable bands, and the inner edges are finished for a closing with buttons or snap fasteners. Comfort and convenience are expressed in this design.

The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 6 months, 1 and 2 years. To make this garment for a 1 year size will require 1 1/2 yard of material 36 inches wide together with 3/4 yard of contrasting material for facing on collar, pockets, belt, sleeves, and leg bands.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12¢ in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

GIVEN SUGGESTIONS FOR TOURISTS HOMES

Ithaca, N. Y., Feb. 15.—Rural women who wish to make money at home may take in tourists, but success in this business as in any other depends on personality and management, says Mrs. Nancy Masterman, of the New York state college of home economics, who spoke today at farm and home week.

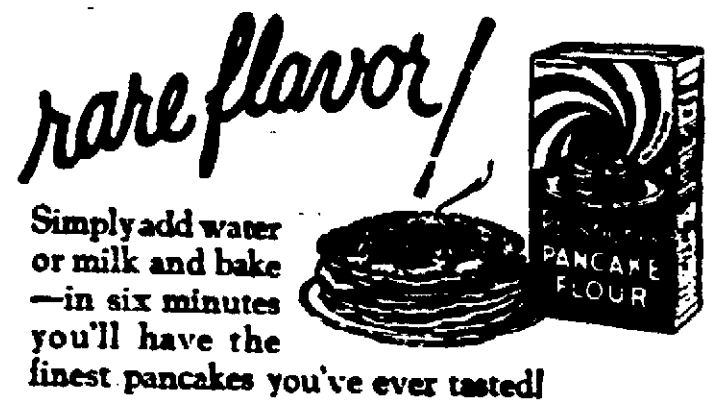

Mrs. Masterman, who has studied successful tourist homes in New York, told some of the reasons for their success. An important item is the sign to attract the tourist, she said. It may pay to have this made by a commercial sign company. A neat, well-kept lawn and a house which looks inviting and home-like are also important.

Cleanliness and comfort should be the keynote of the entrance and porch as well as of the whole house. Comfortable chairs, benches, and possibly a swing or a hammock may be provided. Grass rugs on porches are attractive and easy to clean. Simplicity makes for charming interiors. Everything which does not add to the usefulness or beauty of the sleeping room should be taken out. Good beds, clean sheets, and bedding as well as an immaculate bathroom, an abundance of hot water, fresh towels and a good supply of soap are necessities.

Good Coffee Attracts.
Meals, which must be ready to be served at all hours, can be very simple but the food should be neatly served and excellent in quality, especially the coffee. News of good coffee travels far and may make a reputation for a roadside inn.

The personality of the hostess will add or detract from the success of the home. She should be hospitable, generous, always well groomed in appearance, and ready to meet her guests at the door.

Found Guilty of Removing Ticks

Also the Ticks. After which Rotary Trial Defendant Distributed Mowers and All Was Well in the Governor Clinton Office Shop.

Kingsport Potatoes enjoyed a ladies' night dinner and entertainment in the Governor Clinton office shop Thursday evening that possessed the all too universal feature of being free from crations and craters, uplifting or otherwise. A famous but unidentified orator had been announced and plate set for him, but as he never was, he failed to appear and members were called on for remarks. In this way, through the "plaintiff" making known his grievance, a nearly impromptu trial was begun. James Byrne was the plaintiff. S. D. Seidler, Jr., the defendant. U. S. Commissioner Arthur C. Connolly, the judge. Ashton, Hart, the plaintiff's attorney, S. M. H. Wills, the defendant's attorney, L. H. Wilson, the clerk of the court, and E. Frank Fitzgerald, the very handsome court officer. There was also a jury of which David Burgetta was the foreman until deposed. The charge was that the defendant had wrongfully taken the ticks and also the ticks out of a clock left with him by the plaintiff for repairs.

There was expert testimony by Francis W. Helmerle and non-expert testimony by several others. The jury found the defendant guilty, but recommended him to the mercy of the court and who recommended that the judge be removed from office and that both attorneys be disbarred. Sentence was suspended on condition that the defendant present a rose to each lady present, which condition was complied with.

Mrs. Gertrude Coulter, Mrs. Julia Buckmaster, Grover Nielson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Unland of New Palis were among the many members of Highland Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, who pleasantly surprised Mrs. Frank Palmer in honor of her birthday, February 3. Mrs. Gertrude Coulter, worthy matron, in behalf of those present presented the guest of honor with a large basket of flowers. The evening was spent playing pinocle.

Mrs. John McElroy and daughter, Ruth, of Gardiner, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Edwards on Saturday.

Mrs. John H. DuBois has been ill for a few days at her home on Warrs Avenue.

Mrs. Joseph P. LeFevre has been confined to her home with a cold. The new house of C. C. Ward on Excelsior Avenue is nearing completion.

Foch Shows Improvement.

Paris, Feb. 15 (AP).—Marshal Foch again showed an overnight improvement, according to his three physicians, who this morning resumed issuance of official bulletins as to his condition. Their communique said: "There has been an amelioration of the pulmonary symptoms. The state of the kidneys is quite satisfactory."

About Town In New York

(By F. G. Clough.)

Old Kingston, with its picturesque Rondout stream, its shippards, its nearby Catskill mountains and small villages, has again been selected by artists for subject matter with which to add to the growing interest of art lovers in the beautiful native scenery of the Hudson river environs. This time it has been Charles Rosen and Herman More, both Woodstock artists, who have found their pictures in and about Kingston. Mr. Rosen has found many attractive scenes in the Kingston district for his oil paintings which are being exhibited this week at the Whitney Studio Galleries on Eighth street, New York city.

Mr. Rosen's "Road to Rondout" shows several old houses of the late 1800's with their hedges and mail-boxes and small yards close to a wagon road. These are backed by a loaf of a hill; this painting is done with greens splashing from the well-kept lawns to the houses with pleasing effect.

The same artist shows "Derelict", a painting of boats tied in the Rondout, backed by the high trestle of the West Shore, over which chugs a train, throwing its smoke in a stream over its own back; "Up For Repairs" is another painting of the docks at Kingston; "Cliff Dwellings" shows houses clustered against a steep hillside.

Mr. Rosen brings two paintings from Woodstock: the first, "The Blacksmith Shop", is a modernistic piece in the realistic and impressionistic manner, a picture of Cyrus Russell's blacksmith shop at Short's Corners. Here a road is carving toward Byrdcliffe, but one's eye is carried into the open shop, in quest of the one-time smithy; shaggy tree limbs come down from the sky above to hold the buildings in their place, and a sharp curve takes the winter highway off the canvas abruptly. Mr. Rosen's "The White Church" is of the old Dutch Reformed Church on the Woodstock village green—rather it shows the spire shooting Heavenward against an ominous sky quite in keeping with the gloomy religious fears of the organizations which builded these steeples; adjoining this church is the house of a one-time parsonage where the ill-fated Byron C. Snyder passed away recently. This painting is done with a strong manner—it hits the eye quite like the actual view of the buildings often hits one's consciousness after, say perhaps, a reverie from which one awakes to encounter a world of stern realities.

H. More's Rocks. The second artist in this brief account is Herman More, who comes from Wittenburg way with hillsides, rocks, woods and a few local scenes. More has painted a "Street in Eastport", "Wittenburg Hills", "Shuttle Barns", the last-mentioned painting having been loaned for the exhibit by Mrs. Evelyn B. Fike. This artist works in sombre colors, in grays and browns that seem to portray something of the permanence of the Catskill hills; he is never gay or flippant. His best foot seems to be forward in several of the hillside views, in which he captures an extremely decorative design which he has personalized into a special bit of woodland scenery which would wear well in any home.

H. E. Schnakenberg is a third artist in this present Whitney show; he exhibits some delightful water colors; more than one-third of the number have been loaned by owners for the exhibit. These water colors have a poetic and pictorial technique, an honest and artistic conception. This artist uses many colors; his subjects have come from many places—South Carolina, Florida, Gulf of Mexico and New York city. The fourth artist in this exhibition is Dorothy Varian, who works in oils. Kingstonians visiting New York will find this exhibition at the Whitney Galleries, 10 West Eighth street, open from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. The local scenes should have exceptional interest for those who are acquainted with picturesque Kingston.

ELIHU ROOT TO SAIL FOR EUROPE AT MIDNIGHT

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Elihu Root, who is 84 years old today, will sail for Europe at midnight on the Italian liner Augustus as an unofficial emissary of the United States seeking an understanding among the world powers on America's reservations to the World Court.

At the home of the former secretary of state it was said he was in excellent health. He planned to spend the day quietly with his son, Elihu Root, Jr., and his daughter-in-law.

Ends Indigestion Quickly

No More Pains or Distress
After Meals

Over sixty per cent of those who suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or gastric trouble find normal digestion again if they will take a little Bismarck-Brown after each meal for a few days. This will check the stomach's bad habit of secreting too much acid and bring about a quick recovery of normal, healthy digestion. Don't bother about diet, for Bismarck-Brown prevents fermentation and keeps the stomach contents sweet until digestion is over. These Bismarck-Brown tablets are made of pure vegetable matter and are easily absorbed without fear of their coating the stomach.

Bismarck-Brown is one of the few preparations of modern medicine, and has power to cure indigestion, has been proved beyond a doubt. Bismarck-Brown acts in the stomach. Food fermentation and acid dyspepsia are often the cause of indigestion, flatulence, nervous weakness, pallor, headache, nervousness, loss of energy, and other symptoms. Bismarck-Brown gives strength, stimulates digestion, and has a powerful influence on general bodily health and vitality.

Druggists everywhere sell Bismarck-Brown in both powder and tablet form. Bismarck-Brown gives instant and certain relief.

Turkey Adopts Strict Measures

Constantinople, Feb. 15 (AP).—Turkey has adopted strict measures to forestall representatives growing out of the presence of its "white elephant" guest, Leon Trotsky, in this city.

Increase in communist sentiment is regarded as a primary danger in the case of the former Soviet war chief here, and the government is not being caught napping.

Passport restrictions, always stringent, have been tightened to prevent followers of Trotsky from Russia gathering about him. In the past the government has been so persistent in stamping out sporadic communist agitation that no organized group of that faith exists anywhere in the country.

Two arrests yesterday at Adria-nople further made evident the official attitude. Both of these arrests were Turks, one a school teacher and the other an electrician.

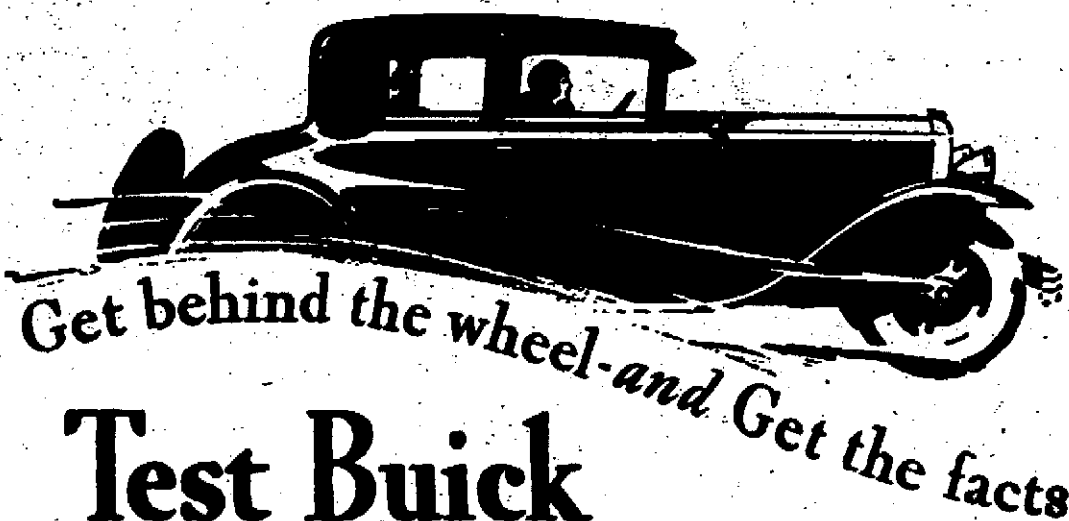

Meanwhile another day's train left for Ankara, capital of the country, without Trotsky aboard. The Soviet consulate at which he is supposed to be residing under the name of Selvon still was heavily guarded, although some persons were allowed entrance there.

Turkey is maintaining a hands-off policy, Turkish newspapers have been warned not to mention the exile's name. It is understood from usually reliable sources that the daily promise made by Turkey to the Soviet government is that Trotsky will exercise due prudence to see that Trotsky does not leave the country. The job of chasing his lips and letting him from public view is delegated to Soviet officials.

war from his misadventures in Russian Turkestan, but news gatherers haunting the vicinity of the consulate have been unable to get even so much as a glimpse of him through the windows.

Money No Longer Cleared The clearing of money, both paper and coins, in the United States treasury has been discontinued. When money has become too soiled and disreputable for circulation, it is destroyed and replaced with new.

Test Buick against any automobile in the world—in all elements of Performance — let results on the road determine your choice!

Winning more than twice as many buyers as any other automobile listed above $1200 . . . by completely exploding the theory that "all cars are the same" and that it was next to impossible for any car to secure a revolutionary advance in performance!

That is the achievement of the thrilling Buick of today; and that is the basic reason why Buick makes this simple, straightforward suggestion to motor car buyers—

Take a Buick—test it in direct comparison with any other car—let the test endorse all elements of performance. . . .

Thread through traffic. Soar over the hills. Throttle down to a walking pace. Rise to a brilliant sprint on the straightaway. Make a thoroughgoing comparison of power, getaway, swiftness, smoothness and stamina, in order that you may obtain full knowledge of Buick performance leadership.

Get behind the wheel and get the facts. With the facts in hand, we know you will get a Buick!

Internal Health by Nature's Own Methods

If you are sick inside you are sick all over. When the stomach fails to digest its food, you are standing at the threshold of a series of ailments that may end in a complete physical wreck.

Internal health means health throughout the body. Keep your stomach and other digestive organs clean and vigorous by giving them the natural stimulation of the roots, herbs and herbs contained in Tanlac.

Tanlac is wonderful for indigestion and constipation—gas, pains, nausea, dizziness and headaches. It brings back lost appetite, helps you digest your food, and gain strength and weight.

Tanlac is as free from harmful drugs as the water you drink. It contains no mineral drugs; it is made of roots, herbs and herbs, nature's own medicines for the sick. For over 10 years it has been recommended by druggists who have watched its marvelous results. The cost is less than 2 cents a dose. Get a bottle of Tanlac from your druggist and give it a thorough trial. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Flood Light at Redeemer Church

A flood light has been installed in Redeemer Lutheran Church on Wurts street to illuminate the front church window every evening when the church would otherwise be dark. The window, a real work of art, was imported from Austria when the church was erected and was donated by Daniel Zoller, a charter member. His family are providing the electrical equipment for the inside illumination of the window. It was felt that since various commercial articles are generously advertised, the church should bring before those who pass by the greatest message that can be offered to man, that is the message of the Resurrection, for the window depicts the Resurrection of Christ from the Tomb.

At the business meeting of the Senior Luther League it was decided to hold a "hold-up" party on Easter Monday, April 1. The regular monthly Fellowship Hour will be held Sunday, March 24, at 2:30 p. m. It was decided to hold a social meeting every month in addition to the regular business meetings, four of them to be of a special character. The League will conduct a campaign to secure subscribers for "The Lutheran."

Tallow Trees. In Texas from time to time experiments have been made to cultivate the Japanese tallow tree. This tree bears nuts that contain a rich tallow-like oil that has been found very valuable in the manufacture of high-grade varnishes and other much-needed products.

The climate and soil conditions in that section of Texas are apparently well adapted to the growth of this curious tree, and the experimental gardens have been supplying farmers through that region with young trees with which to experiment.

No Kidding. Mary Katherine, a golden-haired niece of three, is very fond of a neighbor, Mr. D. She always expects some attention when he is at home and she is seldom disappointed. But one day Mr. D. sat on his porch, apparently absorbed in his own affairs, and did not see the little girl who was patiently waiting on her own porch for him to speak to her. When she could bear quiet no longer she called out, "Mr. D., quit kidding me!"

Off the Target. It was a very hot day on the rifle range, and the instructor had just about had enough of it.

There was one more man to fire, and, closing his eyes, this individual tossed off his ten rounds in less than a minute.

"Here I got a bull!" he cried, when he had finished.

The instructor, who had just put down his glasses, glowered.

"Oh, yes," he retorted, "you got a bull all right, but I expect you will have to pay for it. It's being kept in the stock shed."—London American.

FOUR CARRIES PLANS TO GET HIGH PRESIDENT

Indianapolis, Feb. 15 (AP).—Four candidates, A. W. O. L. from Culver Military Academy at Culver, Ind., whose plans to "go to Santo Domingo and get rich" were frustrated, today awaited arrival of an academy representative to straighten out their affairs.

The four are Jay Roy Hunt, Jr., 18, of Hollywood, Cal.; Emanuel Barron Stevens, 14, of Rome, N. Y.; Richard J. Schuler, 16, of New York City and Juan Suarez, 17, of Porto Rico.

Placing stuffed dummies in their beds to deceive the inspecting officer the youths slipped away from the academy Wednesday night. Late yesterday they were arrested at Valley Mills, Ind.

Substitutes for Gold

Perhaps all the world isn't struggling for gold and silver, but it is only because those precious metals aren't known in some of the out-of-the-way spots—and even there a substitute is found.

In the South Sea Islands, for instance, porpoise teeth strung around a native's head indicate his wealth, recounts the Farm Journal. On the island of Yap the rich man is known by the number of cartwheel stones piled in front of his hut. In the East Indies and throughout a large part of Africa beads and shells are used for money, and in the Polar regions, where fishing is the chief source of livelihood, fishhooks are a principal medium of exchange.

Siamese Currency

It takes 100 satang to make a baht, the latter being the equivalent of 0.00067 grams of fine gold. The baht, sometimes just bat, is also the unit of weight. Eighty baht equal one chang, and 50 chang equal one huph. One-eighth of a baht is called a sang, and two sangs are a satang. There are also wahs, kups and pews, as well as sangs, yotes, tanhs and tanans. Twenty tanans formerly equalled half a coconut shell. You will have to keep that all straight in your mind if you have financial intercourse with Siam. But remember especially that the tical is now out of use officially as a money unit.—New Orleans Times-Picayune.

Vicious "Complex"

The word "complex" is used by many modern psychologists and alleged psychologists to denote a group of ideas and feelings which are mentally associated with a certain subject. For instance, they would say that Napoleon had a "conquest complex." Usually, but not always, the ideas and feelings are supposed to be repressed. A person is said to have an "inferiority complex" when he habitually feels himself incapable of doing certain things. The opposite state or attitude of mind is termed a "superiority complex."—Pathfinder Magazine.

ALLOWAY ABRAFT AND MENACING NAVIGATION.

Seattle, Feb. 15 (AP).—Warning that the disabled freighter Alloway was adrift and menacing navigation at Unimak Pass, Aleutian Islands, was broadcast by the Naval Radio Station here today after unsuccessful efforts had been made by the coast guard cutter Chelan to tow her to safety.

The hopes of James L. Posey of Seattle, owner and storekeeper of the Alloway, of receiving a generous reward in salvage because he stayed with his ship after the other 22 members of the crew had been rescued, received a setback as the Chelan reported that the derelict had been lost in the fog and darkness.

Posey was called "The mad officer of the Alloway" because he refused to leave the ship last Tuesday as a fierce storm drove her toward the rocks at Alitak Island. After two days Posey was taken aboard the Chelan last night. The Chelan's physician pronounced him physically and mentally sound.

Speculation has it how much

Posey might make if the Alloway were salvaged was heard from several quarters when the Chelan reported sending a few men aboard the freighter preparatory to towing her to safety.

Not far distant another abandoned ship, the Japanese freighter Maigo Maru, which had attempted to aid the Alloway, was drifting back and forth with the tide. The 25 members of her crew were en route to Japan aboard the rescue vessel, the Nankoh Maru.

Our policy is never to carry furs from one season into another —and because we must maintain this policy, we offer you superb furs at less than their cost to us to make—and sustain the loss ourselves, rather than deviate from Leventhal's tradition.

Opportunity

This is an opportunity we have never offered before, but because this has been a season of unusual weather, and overstocked fur markets, we offer values such as no other February has shown.

Savings

All of these coats will be worth hundreds of dollars more next September than their cost of today—yet all will be equally smart, since they include only the most advanced fashions.

Confidence

Our patrons know that when we make a statement concerning a fur, we know our subject. They know the Leventhal's label is an unfailing guarantee of dependable quality, superior value, and fair dealing. They may be assured that these furs are of our usual standard in quality and fashion—in value, they actually surpass it. We urge the importance of choosing now.

Three Industrial League Games

In the Industrial League games played at the Y. M. C. A. court Thursday night the Silk Mills defeated Brigham, 45 to 31, the Central Hudson beat the Athletics, 43 to 15, and the Hercules team came through in the last half of their game with Schilling and took it by a score of 27 to 21. The last game was the best game of the night. Hercules was held scoreless in the first quarter but before the half came around they were but four points behind their opponents. It was in the third quarter that the powdermakers cut down the lead held by Schilling to one point. In the early part of the last quarter "Joe" Dulla sunk three fields from the middle of the floor. The score was 19 to 18 previous to Dulla's rally.

PORT EVEN K. OF F. FIVE WINS FROM CLINTON SENIORS

With Van Etten in stellar scoring form the Port Even Knights of Pythias team romped to a 35-29 victory over the Clinton Avenue M. E. Seniors at Port Even Thursday night. "Van" corralled 18 of the winners' points.

The Clintons shot on a pretty even basis with the Knights throughout the first half of the game, but let the Pythians cop the second half by a 21-18 score. In the second half the Knights were stronger than in the opening session and gave the Clintons more to worry about.

TROJANS TO PLAY MAJOR FIVE QUINTETS

This evening the Trojans will mix with the fast Major Five quintet of the Salvation Army at 7:00. The Trojans are anxious to maintain their winning streak and will find keen opposition in the Major Five, who are out to scalp the Trojans. Manager Crosby will have on hand: Ross, Robin, Ruff, Britt, Thomas and Palmer. The Trojans would like to hear from other teams in the city.

ROSENDALE DEFEATED WOODSTOCK 24 TO 22

The Rosendale F. A. C. defeated the Woodstock A. C. in an exciting game at the Firemen's hall Wednesday night, score 24 to 22. Neither team held more than a few points advantage throughout the game.

A last minute field goal by Jegheis decided the game. Jegheis led the scorers with 16 points while Wilbur tallied 14 for Woodstock.

The score:

MESSINGER WILL TAKE PLACE OF VETERAN GUARD

Ed Messinger, Kingston High School graduate now attending West Point Military Academy, has been picked by Coach Leo Novak to fill the berth at guard, left vacant by the injury of Zimmerman, veteran of the Army's back court, in the basketball war with Pennsylvania University at Philadelphia, Saturday night.

In the Army's final game away from West Point, the following quintet will be sent to the floor to uphold the honor of the cadets: Draper and Krueger, forwards; Strother, center; Messinger and Malloy, guards.

So far the Army's record stands intact with wins over such teams as Columbia, Princeton and New York University. In all, the West Pointers have nine victories to their credit.

After Saturday's game at Philadelphia two more games will be played before the closing of the season on Washington's Birthday against Harvard at West Point.

WALKER TO DEFEND TITLE AGAINST HUDKINS

Los Angeles, Feb. 15 (AP).—Mickey Walker, world's middleweight champion, will defend his title at Las Vegas, Nev., on July 4, against Ace Hudkins, Nebraska "wildcat."

Announcement that Jack Kearns had signed for the champion was made here yesterday by Promoter Tom Kennedy. Kennedy said he already had an agreement with Hudkins to fight for him on July 4 and that he expected to have the Nebraska name on a contract within a few days.

THIRTY GIANTS ARRIVE AT SAN ANTONIO

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 15 (AP).—Thirty members of the New York Giants, headed by Assistant Manager and Coach Ray Schalk, were here today ready to begin spring training.

The players, accompanied by ten newspapermen, arrived last night. The remainder of the team will report March 1.

The players said they expected Manager John McGraw "to drop in any day."

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

(By The Associated Press)

Waterbury, Conn.—Louis Kid Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., outpointed Phil McGraw, Detroit, (10).

Davenport, Iowa—Jack Dillon, Louisville, outpointed Kay White, New Orleans, (10).

STIFF TEST FOR GRIFFITH WHEN HE MEETS LONSKI

Detroit, Feb. 15 (AP).—Gerald Ambrose Griffith, the tough one from Sioux City, Iowa, meets the test of his career tonight when he engages Leo Lonski, recognized as the leading challenger for the world's light heavyweight championship, in a 10-round contest.

The bout will be a referee's decision at the light heavyweight limit, 175 pounds. The winner will be admitted the leading challenger for the light heavyweight championship held by Tommy Loughran. Lonski is figured to have an advantage over the Iowa youngster due to his greater experience and superior boxing skill.

Griffith, however, has ruggedness, speed and dangerous punching ability.

Armory Card Now Complete

Posters advertising the card of bouts to be staged at the local armory on Friday night, February 22, were released Thursday, but since yesterday one change was effected in the program. The Ivan Hawes-Jimmy Reed bout has been thrown off by Captain E. C. Lawson to give place to Bill Freeman, negro heavyweight of West Point vs. Jack Elrod of New York City. The bout is scheduled for six rounds.

This is expected to be the sort of a scrap most pleasing to Kingston fans. Elrod has been waiting for several weeks to get rematched with Freeman, who won from him by a kayo in New York city some time ago. Matchmaker Jimmy Ambrose promises that the tilt will be one of the most attractive battles ever fought at the armory. Both boys are hard punchers and the result of the coming fracas is almost certain to result in a knockout.

Of course the main bout of 10 rounds will go on as scheduled between Johnny Carpio, 142 pounder and Nick Zinna, 137, both of this city. Carpio argues on evening matters with Nick, who beat him at the local armory several weeks ago. It is expected that this setto will draw as large a house as it did on the last meeting of the two Kingston fighters.

The semi-final will be an eight round affair put on by Charlie Molvin of this city and Tommy Aboba. The latter, a clever little New Yorker, whom Molvin defeated here at the last show, is training to give Charlie one of the most hectic fights of his career.

Other bouts on the card are as follows:

French Duwig of Kingston vs. Teddy Anderson, Mitchell Field, six rounds.

Dewey Van Buren of this city vs. Jimmy Morrison of New York, four rounds.

Ski Riders Jump For Title; Lars Haugen Will Compete

They "law down and go down" on the Buttrick's hill (above) where the U. S. championship will be held, but they needn't feel depressed for it's one of the sportiest slides in the country. Haugen and Monsen are the 1928 favorites.

HEAVY MAY KANE THREW MAY IN RING

Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 15 (AP).—Promoter Jack Dempsey today was prepared to use the big stick, if necessary, to maintain peace and quiet between "Pa" Strickling and Johnny Buckley, manager of the principals in his February 27 battle at Flamingo Park, when they meet to spar over the selection of a referee.

He expected to take no part in the actual selection, he said, as long as the managers seemed to agree, but he warned Strickling and Buckley that any unnecessary lead talking would end negotiations. In that event, Dempsey will name the third man in the ring tomorrow.

While Strickley hammered the heavy bags and went through three rounds with sparring partners, Young Strickling left with his truck or "Baby" for Melbourne, Fla., where he will second the youngman in a fight tonight.

French Shepherds Use
Stilts to Advantage

Walking on stilts is a feat that does not die with the ages. On the tomb of one of the oldest Pharaohs is a crude bas-relief depicting a court procession. The procession is led by a trapezoid who is perched on high stilts.

Every nation, in fact, has had its expert stilt walkers. In China, and Japan the stilt is popular with youths, some of whom are so adept in this mode of walking that they require no supports or springs to steady them.

In southern France stilts are more than fads. There they are used almost continuously by the shepherds, who have to keep watch over large flocks of sheep as well as to pass through bogs. The stilts are usually from six to eight feet high and are strapped tightly to the knees.

Both men and women in that part of the country are expert stilt walkers. In their hands they hold a long stick or cane as a support. So accustomed are these people to the stilts that they hardly have been known to walk without them.

A frequent pastime of these people are stilt races, and not a holiday passes without a stilt contest of some sort. One contest recently was won by a boy and a girl, each fourteen years old. The third to come in was a shepherd, whose legs were stout and steady.

Long Sliding Line

Financial
and Commercial

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Further tightening of credit conditions, accompanied by the calling of $40,000,000 in bank loans, turned the course of stock prices reactionary today after an opening bulge based on the retention of the 5 per cent rediscount rate by the New York Federal Reserve Bank, and the decline of $141,600,000 in brokers' loans. Early advances of one to 8 points were cut down or wiped out, and a long list of issues sank one to 11 points below yesterday's final quotations.

For the second time this week, the rate on bankers' acceptances was advanced, presumably in reflection of the sharp drop in the bill and security holdings of the Federal Reserve banks. Time money also was firmer, some maturities being raised from 7 1/2 to 7 3/4 per cent. Call money remained at 6 1/2 per cent but advanced to 7 in the early afternoon.

The early rise apparently was due to heavy short covering, but leading commission houses continued to urge prompt taking on the rallies in the belief that the Federal Reserve Board means business and that further measures to restrict the volume of speculative credit will be taken unless there is a sharp reduction in brokers' borrowings.

United Electric Coal, which recently crossed 51 on pool manipulation, broke 11 points to a new low for the year at 56. Radio converted an early gain of 4 points into a loss of 7 and Allied Chemical dropped 6 1/2 points below last night's close.

Montgomery Ward, General Electric, Johns Manville and American Railway Express sold 3 to 4 points under last night's closing quotations and American and Foreign Power lost all of its early gain of 6 1/2 points.

Union Tank Car, North American Company and Marine Preferred moved into new high ground in the early outburst of strength.

Local Death Record

Adam C. Romer, who conducted a bakery in Saugerties a few years ago, died suddenly of pneumonia at Richmond Hill, S. I., on February 8.

Poughkeepsie, Feb. 15.—Funeral services for Herman Tranker, formerly of Rosendale, who died Tuesday morning, February 12, after a long illness, were conducted at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Duane Davis, 4 Columbia street, today at 11 a. m. Interment in Rosendale Plains cemetery. Mr. Tranker, who was born in Germany on October 6, 1842, conducted a harness business for many years at Rosendale.

May, wife of George W. Jones, died at the Benedictine Hospital on Wednesday, February 13. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. at the Shokan M. E. Church. Interment in Shokan Cemetery. Besides her husband, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. George Armstrong of Walton, N. Y.; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Berryman of Walton and Mrs. Myrtle Hutchings of Port Crane, N. Y., and one brother, Earl Armstrong of Walton.

The funeral of William Graham Johnston, son of Robert H. and the late Margaret J. Johnston of this city, was held at his home in Passaic, N. J., on Tuesday, February 12. Besides his wife and son, Frederick, he is survived by four sisters, Mrs. W. E. Randall of Rutherford, N. J., Mrs. F. W. Powell, Mrs. W. K. Powell and Mrs. Edith Banker all of this city and one brother, Robert Vernon Johnston of Passaic, N. J. Services were conducted by the Rev. William Doidge of Passaic. There were many floral pieces.

August William Martin died Wednesday at the home of his son, Albert Martin, in Highland, after a long illness. He was born in Germany and came to this country over forty years ago. He would have been 81 years old if he had lived until August. He is survived by his wife; a brother, Gustave of Highland; one daughter, Mrs. Minnie Shorter of Poughkeepsie, and three sons, Fred C. William and Albert H. Martin, all of Highland. Funeral services from the home of his son, Albert, on Saturday afternoon. Interment in Highland.

The funeral of William Silk, who died in New York City, was held from the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Higgins of Port Ewen today at 9 a. m. and at the Church of the Presentation at 9:30 o'clock, where a Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. Martin P. Leddy. The funeral was largely attended and there was a profusion of flowers. Bearers, who were grandsons of the deceased, were James Thomas and Leonard Higgins, Robert F. Matthews and Edward Barth. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, where final absolution was pronounced by the Rev. Father Leddy.

John J. Malone, 53, manager of the Poughkeepsie district of the New York Telephone Company, died today. He had been in poor health for about a year but had been seriously ill only a few days. Mr. Malone was born in Albany. He had been employed by the Telephone Company for 40 years, starting as an agent in Albany in 1889. Later he became chief clerk there and in 1911 was made manager of the Malone office. In 1912 he was made manager of the Hudson office and in 1922 of the Poughkeepsie district. He was an active Rotarian and a member of the Hudson volunteer firemen. He is survived by his widow, a son and daughter.

Miss Susie Beers, R. N., who conducted the Beers Sanitarium at Saugerties, died there on Thursday at 4 p. m., following a siege of pneumonia and an operation performed last Sunday to remedy a congested condition of her lungs. Following the operation, which was performed by Dr. Drubley of this city, Miss Beers showed signs of improvement and all hopes were entertained for her satisfactory recovery. However, she relapsed on Thursday and died. Miss Beers, who was a graduate of Vassar Hospital, Poughkeepsie, had conducted the Beers Sanitarium in a manner which made the community of Saugerties very proud of the institution. The passing of Miss Beers has caused a great sorrow to the village.

John F. Eldmann of North Bergen, N. J., a retired engineer of the West Shore Railroad who was born in Kingston and spent his youth in this city, died suddenly Thursday at the Golden Rule Inn property, Ulster Park. Mr. Eldmann, who was 67 years of age, had been fishing through the ice and started for the inn, but sank to the ground on the way. It was said a heart attack caused his death. He is survived by his wife, Susanna Reinuth of Kingston; one daughter, Mrs. Edward H. Frank of North Bergen; one son, Prof. Frank L. Eldmann of Princeton University; one brother, Peter Eldmann; two half brothers, Christian Diriam and Philip Bennett, all of Kingston; three sisters, Mrs. Charles Buchholz of this city, Mrs. Elizabeth LaForte of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Anna Britenbecker of Ulster Park. Funeral Monday at 2 p. m. from the Funeral Home, 167 Tremper avenue. Interment in Montrose cemetery.

Cobalt Glass Coloring
The use of cobalt in coloring glass in ancient times has been proved by recent experiments of a German scientist. Upon analysis of some fragments of Babylonian artificial lugs (lamps) taken from the excavations at Nimrud and dating from approximately 1400 B. C., the use of both cobalt and copper was demonstrated.

LAST NIGHT
on the RADIO

Gershwin's famous "Rhapsody in Blue", studies of which have been identified with the Old Gold-Paul Whiteman Hour since its inception over the Columbia Broadcasting System two weeks ago, will be played in its complete form by Whiteman in the nation-wide broadcast over a 42 station hookup announced for Tuesday night, February 19, at 9 o'clock. Thousands of requests for the number have been received by the P. Lorillard Company, makers of Old Gold cigarettes. Written for the Carnegie Hall concert of the Whiteman orchestra and dedicated to the Whiteman group, the Rhapsody is closely identified with the King of American jazz.

In Memoriam.
In loving memory of Mamie Joy Squires
Four years have passed since that sad day
When the one we loved was called away,
The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought her death so near.
We never knew what pains she had
We did not see her die,
We only know she passed away
And never said good-bye,
Loving and kind in all her ways,
She has left broken hearts behind,
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
What a beautiful memory left behind
Only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell,
Gone never to be forgotten,
Till we meet her there.
MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHER.

Mother and Six
Children Dead

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—A 20-year-old mother tucked her six children into bed for a morning nap today and then, when they were asleep, turned on every gas jet in the apartment.

Jose Pinos returned to his West street apartment on the Madison or at noon to find all the children dead in bed and his wife lying dead on the kitchen floor. The children ranged in age from one to 13 years.

Thinks Women Can Do More

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP).—Governor Roosevelt believes that the administrative problems of New York will be solved more readily if women evinced more interest in them. He has gone so far as to say, in speaking of the part he hopes women will take in fostering improved local government: "I am inclined to think you can do more than the men."

The Governor's remarks came in the course of an address last night at a banquet in honor of Professor Anna Bonford Comstock, naturalist and pioneer member of the Cornell faculty. It was part of the Farm and Home Week program at the university.

After predicting that New York will handle its farm problems in such a manner that people throughout the United States will say "see what New York has done," the executive turned to the subject of local government. Pointing out that there had been but slight changes since the Duke of York laid down rules of conduct in 1680, the Governor urged the people of New York, particularly the women, to interest themselves in the government of their community and to be advocates of more up-to-date methods of government.

WHY HOOD RUNNERS WEAR WHITE COATS

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Feb. 15 (AP).—Liquor smugglers in this section of the state, according to customs officials, are wearing white coats and hats in an effort to escape detection while crossing the ice bridge across the St. Lawrence here.

Four men recently were surprised by federal patrols while hauling beer across the ice on toboggans. All wore the white costumes and scattered as the prohibition officers pursued. One threw himself flat on the snow, hoping his white coat would conceal him, but was captured.

Kingston Post Meets Tonight

Kingston Post of the American Legion will hold its monthly meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the Memorial Building on West O'Reilly street.

A large attendance is expected as business of extreme importance to all members of the American Legion will be voted on.

County Commander John Lowther, of Saugerties, the county commander of Ulster county, and the post commanders from Ulster and Greene are expected to attend the meeting to discuss plans for the big Legion rally here on Tuesday, March 5. State Commander Douglas I. McKay at that time will be the guest at a big dinner at the Hotel Stuyvesant. Tickets for this dinner will be placed on sale at the meeting tonight.

A basketball game between the soldiers and sailors of the Post will soon be played for the benefit of the Dram Corps Louisville fund. Doughboys and gobs wishing to play on these teams are asked to report tonight to Athletic Officer "Tex" Murray.

The junior baseball program, which will be the biggest undertaking of the Post this year, will also be discussed. Membership Chairman James H. Betts is expected to report a substantial gain in membership over last meeting night.

After the meeting refreshments will be served by the ladies and there will be dancing with music by the Post's orchestra.

All Legionnaires and veterans of the World War, who have not yet joined their buddies in the American Legion are urged to attend this meeting.

Bedeviled by Bad Luck; Back of It a Landlord

Chicago.—James K. Sabath, who is in the insurance business, decided to buy his own home last fall when his landlord, Geoffrey Muller, jacked the rent of his apartment $25 a month.

To heat his new home Sabath bought "no ash household coal," advertised by an enterprising fuel corporation. But the stuff wouldn't burn. When Sabath sued the fuel company he found that its president was Muller, his old landlord. Sabath lost the suit because Muller testified the company had never said the coal would make no ash. Muller declared Sabath's humor was restored the other night when he was riding home. He saw fire engines working ineffectually on several mountains of blazing coal in Muller's yard. He was still laughing when he entered his home. Shortly afterward the telephone bell rang.

"Say," said the caller, "this is Muller. Our coal yard just burned. Total loss of $30,000 and we got a policy in your company."

Now the police are trying to prevent a justifiable homicide.

Oklahoma State Senator Only 27 Years of Age

Oklahoma City.—The youngest member of the Oklahoma state senate, six years ago was a garage mechanic, getting $2 a day. Today he is one of the political powers of one of the youngest states.

George Dewey Peck, the senator in question, is twenty-seven years old, and already has been in the senate two years. He has two more years of his present term to serve.

Peck's first glimpse of "big time politics" came when he made a trip to Washington several years ago and saw congress at work.

He came back to Oklahoma with a desire to be a politician. He started out as an assistant reading clerk in the lower house of the legislature. Then he became reading clerk before being elected senator from his district.

Minnesota Leads All in Radios in Homes

St. Paul.—Minnesota leads all the states in the ratio of radios to homes. California is second, according to a recent study of radio distribution. Of every 100 homes in Minnesota, 60 have radio sets. California is second with 53 sets per 100 homes. Florida, third with 43, and New Mexico is lowest with 6 sets. Of each 100 homes in this country 20 have radio sets, according to the survey.

Abuses of Optimism

Our sunshine thought for today is that the pessimist has his place in the world as well as the optimist. Undoubtedly optimism is good for such dread maladies as the blues, the willies, the jumps, the doldrums, the dumps and the down-in-the-mouth disease.

Still there is such a thing as too much sun-kissed optimism. The world has a place here and there for the regular pigheaded, rangtanherous, unreasonable, narrow-eyed, die-hitting pessimist. Too many people believe that Santa Claus runs the stock market or that if they see the moon over their right shoulder they have only to make a wish and sure enough it will come true just like the pignose that flies out of the magician's hat when he waves his wand.

News of the Day In Wall Street

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—Speculation was rife in Wall street today as to the situation among the directors of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, who met for five hours yesterday, but had "nothing to report." Although no confirmation was available, the opinion prevailed that the directors were deadlocked over means to check credit absorption by the stock market. The fact that no increase was made in the rediscount rate encouraged Wall street to believe that none would be made in the near future. The Reserve system's determination to reduce the supply of surplus credit was apparent from its condition report, showing a reduction of approximately $45,000,000 in its holdings of acceptances and government obligations.

Iron ore shipments from Lake Erie ports to interior furnaces during the first eleven days of February totaled 124,567 tons, against 140,263 in the corresponding 1925 period.

In spite of lower prices, shoe manufacturers and retailers are showing gains in business over last year. Two large retail chain systems reported January increases of 39.5 per cent and 25.5 per cent over January, 1928.

An advance in prices of semi-finished steel and a second-quarter price mark upward on sheet bars, slabs and billets are expected in the Youngstown District. Mills there are reported to have sufficient tinplate business on their books to permit average production at 90 per cent of capacity.

The Pennsylvania Railroad system in the week ended February 9, handled 153,436 loaded cars. This compares with 149,958 in the preceding week and 142,539 in the corresponding week in 1928.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Feb. 15 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets).—The moderate supply of California iceberg lettuce unloaded on the local wholesale section today met a brisk demand and values advanced sharply. Crates of four dozen heads sold at $4.00-$5.50.

Texas spinach was in moderate supply. The market was a trifle weaker with demand only fair. Jobbing business on bushel baskets of curly savoy was transacted principally at $1.00-$1.25.

Florida strawberries were in limited supply. Trading was moderate and the market without decided change. Best offerings peddled out at 40c-45c a quart basket.

Another high record was established last month with the arrival of 12,503 carloads of fresh fruits and vegetables at New York city markets. During the same month in 1928 receipts totaled 11,533 cars and in 1927, 11,207 cars. Consignments came from 30 states and 13 foreign countries. Florida led in volume with 3,322 cars of fruits and vegetables. California furnished 2,596, New York 1,269 and Maine 1,165.

The state apple and pear market ruled steady to firm, particularly on fancy fruit, and prices tended upward. Cabbage, carrots and potatoes continued dull at about unchanged values.

California cauliflower was in moderate receipt. Trading was more active and prices strengthened, especially on fancy, and the market closed firmer. Crates of eight and fifteen heads realized $1.50-$2.50, mainly $1.75-$2.25.

Receipts of Mexico green peas were moderate. Demand was fair and the market held about steady. Sales on crates holding approximately 40-45 pounds were consummated at $5.00-$5.50, occasionally $5.75-$6.00.

Bilious?

Take DR. HAYES' BILIOUS—treats the "bilious" or "bilious" —tongue clean, headache gone, appetite back, bowels acting promptly, sleep restored. For constipation, too. But not any more bilious. Only Dr.

Safe, mild, purely vegetable—

Mothers Warned Of Colds That Follow the Flu

Attack Weakened System and Pave Way for Pneumonia or New Case of Influenza.

BEST TREATED EXTERNALLY

Physicians advise that the chief danger in this epidemic is after influenza. Then, more than ever, cold attacking the weakened system may lead to bronchitis, pneumonia, or a second and more severe case of flu. This is especially true of children.

Flu nearly always leaves the stomach upset. Internal medication should, therefore, be avoided, as it so often further disturbs the digestion and thus retards recovery.

But if a fresh cold comes, don't let the child keep it overnight. Just rub Vicks on throat and chest at bedtime. As it is applied externally, Vicks can be used freely even on the youngest child, with no fear of upsetting a delicate stomach.

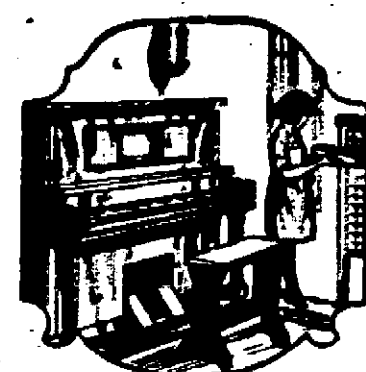

Vicks acts 2 ways at once (both absorbed and inhaled) to check the cold and help avoid serious complications. And of course, it is just as good for adults.

The Officers and Board of Directors of the Home-Owners' Co-Operative Savings & Loan Association have learned with sorrow and regret of the death of MORRIS MYERS one of its Directors. He was elected to the Board of Directors soon after the association was organized and served until he returned from the city. Upon his return to Kingston he was re-elected and was still a Director at the time of his death. In his passing the association has lost an able, earnest and faithful servant, the city a conscientious and valuable citizen. Kindly, genial and charitable in the extreme with malice toward none, he was held not only in the highest but in the sincerest esteem by all who knew him in business, social and family relations.

We extend our heartfelt sympathy in their loss to his wife and children, and direct that this memorial be spread upon the records of this association and a copy thereof transmitted to the family of our deceased associate.
